

CAPTURE NOT MADE.

Officers Still in Control But Slayer of Sheriff Daniels

Is Hiding In the Mountains.

Chief of Police Put in Jail on Charge of Holding Sheriff While Jackson Fired the Fatal Shot. Reward Offered for Murderer's Arrest.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., NOV. 12.—OFFICERS STILL CONTROL THE SITUATION IN FAYETTE BUT HAVE NOT AS YET REPORTED THE CAPTURE OF EDWARD JACKSON, THE SLAYER OF SHERIFF DANIEL. GOVERNOR WHITE TODAY OFFERED A REWARD OF $500 FOR THE CAPTURE OF JACKSON, DEAD OR ALIVE, AND $100 FOR THE CAPTURE OF GEORGE JACKSON, HIS BROTHER. THE OTHER TWO OF THE JACKSON BROTHERS ARE IN JAIL HERE ALONG WITH POLICEMAN ELLIOTT, WHO KILLED CONSTABLE JACKSON AND STARTED THE FUED. CHIEF OF POLICE HUNDLEY HAS BEEN PUT IN JAIL HERE. IT IS CHARGED THAT HE WAS HOLDING DANIEL WHEN JACKSON SHOT HIM. HUNDLEY HAD REMAINED IN CHARLESTON AFTER BRINGING ELLIOTT HERE, BEING ADVISED BY FRIENDS TO REMAIN HERE ON ACCOUNT OF THE FEELING AGAINST HIM IN MONTGOMERY. HE WAS ARRESTED ON A WARRANT.

LATER NEWS. A TELEPHONE MESSAGE FROM MONTGOMERY SAYS: "ED. JACKSON WHO SHOT

DOWN SHERIFF R. DANIEL, AT MONTGOMERY ON WEDNESDAY, APPEARED AT MONTGOMERY TODAY TO ATTEND THE FUNERAL OF HIS BROTHER WHO WAS KILLED BY POLICEMAN ELLIOTT. JACKSON WAS GUARDED BY A CROWD OF HIS FRIENDS WHO WERE HEAVILY ARMED. WHEN IT BECAME KNOWN THAT JACKSON WAS IN THE CITY, ANOTHER POSSE WAS ORGANIZED AND ATTEMPTED TO SECURE JACKSON. IN THIS EFFORT THEY WERE FOILED FOR WHEN THE POSSE CHARGED ON JACKSON AND HIS FRIENDS THE LATTER

DREW GUNS AND BEAT THE POSSE BACK WHO RETREATED.

THOSE ON THE RAIL OF JACKSON LAST NIGHT WERE CALLED IN TODAY. THE BLOOD HOUNDS LOST THE TRAIL BECAUSE THE FUGITIVE CHANGED HIS CLOTHING AT ONE OF THE MINES AND IN THIS WAY MADE HIS ESCAPE FROM HIS PURSUITERS. DETECTIVES WILL TAKE THE CASE.

THERE WAS MUCH EXCITEMENT AT MONTGOMERY WHEN IT BECAME KNOWN THAT JACKSON WAS IN THE CITY, AND FOR A TIME A RIOT WAS IMMINENT.

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTEST RESULT

In Maryland If Electoral Vote Is Not Announced

As for Roosevelt. Seven Democratic Electors Thought to Be Elected.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.—THOUGH the counting of the ballots in Baltimore has been completed the board of election supervisors is still engaged in tabulating the vote and will not finish this work until late today or perhaps Monday. The count in the 23 counties has been completed except in two but it is expected that these will be sent in today.

IN ONE OF THESE THERE IS A CHARGE OF FRAUD IN ONE PRECINCT AND A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION AS TO WHETHER THE BALLOTS IN THAT COUNTY SHOULD BE COUNTED IS THE CAUSE OF DELAY.

DUUBLE DUELS GROWING OUT

Of Assault on War Minister Were Fought in Paris Today Without Blood.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—TWO duels, growing out of the assault on War Minister Andre by Gabriel Sveton, in the chamber of deputies, November 4, were fought today. Lieut. Andre, a son of the minister, met Count De La Rochefoucauld, a deputy. Swords were used. Lieut. Andre was slightly wounded. Elsewhere in the suburbs, M. Sveton fought Captain Call, representing Gen. Andre. Two shots with pistols were exchanged, but neither of the combatants was injured.

NEW ORLEANS RICHER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—THE SUB-TRA

URY TODAY SHIPPED $400,000 TO NEW ORLEANS FOR LOCAL BANKS.

OHIO ALWAYS WAS A FIRST CLASS STATE.

COLUMBUS, O., NOV. 12.—ADDITIONAL

RETURNS FROM THE VARIOUS UP STATE

COUNTIES CONTINUE TO INCREASE THE ESTIMATED REPUBLICAN PLURALITY IN OHIO, AND IT IS NOW ESTIMATED THAT THE ROOSEVELT PLURALITY WILL REACH APPROXIMATELY 254,000, MAKING OHIO THE THIRD STATE IN THE UNION FOR MAGNITUDE OF THE ROOSEVELT ENDORSEMENT.

LIVING IN DEADLY FEAR.

Hardin County Murderer Making Every Effort to Prevent His Early Execution.

COLUMBUS, O., NOV. 12.—A motion for leave to file a petition in error to the circuit court of Hardin county was filed in the supreme court, by Wm. Nicholas against the state. Nicholas was convicted of murder and is now in the prison awaiting execution. His victim was Alphus Minard. Nicholas is living in deadly fear of his impending fate, and has suffered several nervous collapses in the past few weeks.

NICHOLAS CLAIMS THAT THERE WERE IRREGULARITIES IN HIS TRIAL SO THAT HE WAS PREVENTED FROM SECURING JUSTICE. HE CHARGES THAT H. B. HUMMEL, IMPERSONATED HIS FATHER, HENRY HUMMEL, AND SERVED ON THE JURY, SUMMONS HAVING BEEN MADE UPON HENRY HUMMEL, SR. HE ALSO CHARGES THAT THE JURY WAS NOT SWORN AND THAT THERE WAS MISCONDUCT ON THE PART OF THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.

COMMITTED SUICIDE AT SEA.

WIRELESS MESSAGE FROM KAISER WILHELM STEAMER TELLS OF THE DESPERATE DEED.

NEW YORK, NOV. 12.—A TELEGRAM RECEIVED HERE BY WAY OF THE WIRELESS STATION AT NANTUCKET SAYS MRS. SOPHIE WEIS, A PASSENGER BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN FROM CHICAGO, HAS COMMITTED SUICIDE ABOARD THE STEAMER KAISER WILHELM II, WHICH SAILED FROM THIS PORT, LAST TUESDAY.

THE REPORT STATED THAT SHE KILLED HERSELF WITH A REVOLVER.

OFFICERS OF THE STEAMSHIP COMPANY HAVE NO INFORMATION REGARDING THE MATTER AND THE NAME SOPHIE WEIS DOES NOT APPEAR ON THE PASSENGER LIST. THE LATTER DOES CONTAIN, HOWEVER, THE NAME OF ADAM WEIS, OF CHICAGO.

SO FAR AS SEAFARING MEN COULD RECALL, THIS IS THE FIRST INSTANCE IN MANY YEARS WHEN A PASSENGER ON ONE OF THE BIG LINERS HAS COMMITTED SUICIDE BY ANY OTHER MEANS THAN JUMPING OVERBOARD.

MORTON WILL ASK CONGRESS

TO PASS AN ACT INCREASING COMMISSIONED AND ENLISTED MEN FOR THE NAVY.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 12.—SECRETARY MORTON WILL AT ITS COMING SESSION DISCUSS TO PASS AN ACT INCREASING THE COMMISSIONED AND ENLISTED FORCE OF THE NAVY. THIS ACTION IS IN VIEW OF RECENT ESTIMATES THAT WHEN ALL THE SHIPS' NEW BUILDING FOR THE NAVY ARE COMMISSIONED IT WILL TAKE ABOUT 2,087 OFFICERS AND 23,368 ENLISTED MEN TO MAN THEM, WHICH IS MORE THAN TWICE AS MANY AS THE PRESENT LAW PROVIDES FOR.

U. S. CONSUL DEAD.

TOLEDO, O., NOV. 12.—HON. W. W. TOWELLE, UNITED STATES CONSUL AT BELFAST DEAD AT HIS HOME IN WAUSEON, O., THIS MORNING OF BRAIN DISEASE, IN HIS FIFTY-FIFTH YEAR. HE WAS A LAWYER BY PROFESSION AND WAS APPOINTED TO BELFAST DURING PRESIDENT MCKINLEY'S FIRST TERM. HE CAME HOME SOME MONTHS AGO ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE IN THE HOPE OF BENEFITTING HIS HEALTH.

NOBLE CONDUCT OF THE CHICAGO MARTYRS.

BARCELONA, SPAIN, NOV. 12.—THE LOCAL ANARCHISTS HELD THEIR USUAL MEETING YESTERDAY IN CELEBRATION OF THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE EXECUTION OF THE ANARCHISTS AT CHICAGO. THE MEETING PROTESTED AGAINST POLICE PERSECUTION AND EXHORTED THEIR BRETHREN TO IMITATE THE "NOBLE CONDUCT" OF THE CHICAGO MARTYRS.

MYSTERY THAT SURROUNDS

DEATH OF THREE CHICAGO PEOPLE IS BAFFLING ALL EFFORTS OF CORONER.

COLUMBUS, O., NOV. 12.—THE MYSTERY SURROUNDING THE DEATH OF MRS. RACHAEL VAN FOGEN AND HER TWO GRAND CHILDREN, FOUND DEAD IN THEIR HOME SOME DAYS AGO, HAS BEEN DEEPENED BY THE FAILURE OF A CHEMICAL EXAMINATION TO DEVELOP ANY POISON IN THEIR STOMACHS. SIMILAR EXAMINATIONS OF THE FOOD STUFFS FOUND UPON THE BREAKFAST TABLE WHICH HAD BEEN LEFT UNDISTURBED RESULTED THE SAME. UNWILLING TO ACCEPT ASPHYXIAL THEORY, THE CORONER WILL MAKE FURTHER INVESTIGATION.

POPE

IS PLEASED WITH OUR PRESIDENT.

MGR. CHAPPELLE

RETURNS FROM TRIP TO ROME

WITH MESSAGES OF KINDNESS AND GOOD FELLOWSHIP FOR ROOSEVELT.

RESULT OF ELECTION WAS RECEIVED IN MID-OCEAN BY WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY. CHAPPELLE HIMSELF SATISFIED.

NEW YORK, NOV. 12.—MGR. CHAPPELLE, ARCHBISHOP OF NEW ORLEANS, CUBA AND PORTO RICO, ARRIVED HERE TODAY ON THE STEAMER LA LORALINE FROM HAVRE AFTER A STAY OF SEVERAL WEEKS IN ROME. HE SAID HE HAD A MOST ENJOYABLE TRIP ABROAD. ON OCTOBER 28 HE HAD AN AUDIENCE WITH THE POPE AND WAS MOST KINDLY RECEIVED. HE WILL GO TO WASHINGTON AT ONCE AND THENCE TO NEW ORLEANS AND CUBA AND PORTO RICO. THE ARCHBISHOP SAID THAT HE WAS THE BEARER OF A MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT FROM POPE PIUS.

"THE POPE WAS DELIGHTED WITH THE DESCRIPTION OF MR. ROOSEVELT," HE SAID, "AND HE HAS MADE ME THE BEARER OF A MESSAGE OF KINDNESS AND GOOD FELLOWSHIP."

THE RESULT OF THE ELECTION WAS RECEIVED ON BOARD THE LA LORALINE BY WIRELESS TELEGRAPH WHILE THE STEAMER WAS IN MID-OCEAN AND THE ARCHBISHOP SENT A MESSAGE OF CONGRATULATION TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

"WHILE I AM IN NO WISE A PARTISAN BECAUSE OF THE POSITION I HOLD," SAID MANAGER CHAPPELLE, "I DO NOT HESITATE TO EXPRESS MY SATISFACTION OF THE RESULT. I SHALL CONGRATULATE THE PRESIDENT, WHOM I KNOW WELL, IN PERSON WHEN I REACH WASHINGTON."

JOYCE, FOOT BRUISED.

ARTILLERY

BATTLES CONTINUE NEAR MUKDEN

SEVERE ENGAGEMENT ON RUSSIAN RIGHT TODAY.

JAPAN DENIES REPORT THAT ITS GOVERNMENT PROTESTED AGAINST BALTI

CIT FLEET TAKING COAL AT NEUTRAL PORTS.

MUKDEN, NOV. 12.—AFTERNOON.—THE SITUATION IS UNCHANGED TODAY. ARTILLERY CONTINUES, THE FIRING AT TIMES BEING HEAVY, PARTICULARLY IN THE SOUTHWEST. THE JAPANESE SHELLED THE RUSSIAN POSITIONS INTERMITTENTLY YESTERDAY. THE RUSSIANS DID NOT REPLY.

THIS AFTERNOON A SEVERE ARTILLERY ENGAGEMENT TOOK PLACE ON THE RUSSIAN RIGHT.

U. S. CONSUL DEAD.

TOLEDO, O., NOV. 12.—HON. W. W. TOWELLE, UNITED STATES CONSUL AT BELFAST DEAD AT HIS HOME IN WAUSEON, O., THIS MORNING OF BRAIN DISEASE, IN HIS FIFTY-FIFTH YEAR. HE WAS A LAWYER BY PROFESSION AND WAS APPOINTED TO BELFAST DURING PRESIDENT MCKINLEY'S FIRST TERM. HE CAME HOME SOME MONTHS AGO ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE IN THE HOPE OF BENEFITTING HIS HEALTH.

NOBLE CONDUCT OF THE CHICAGO MARTYRS.

LONDON, NOV. 12.—THE JAPANESE LEGATION DENIES THAT THERE IS ANY TRUTH IN THE REPORT PUBLISHED BY THE BIRMINGHAM POST TO THE EFFECT THAT JAPAN HAS COMMUNICATED IN STRONG TERMS WITH SEVERAL EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS ON THE SUBJECT OF THE RUSSIAN SECOND PACIFIC SQUADRON COALING AT NEUTRAL PORTS, WHICH, IT WAS ADDED, JAPAN CONSIDERED TO BE A SERIOUS BREACH OF NEUTRALITY. THE LEGATION HAS TAKEN NO STEPS IN THE MATTER AND HAS NOT HEARD OF SUCH COMMUNICATIONS OR PROTESTS.

VIENNA, NOV. 12.—THE NEUES WIENER TAGBLATT TODAY SAYS THAT, NOTWITHSTANDING ALL DENIES IT LEARNS FROM A RELIABLE SOURCE THAT EMPEROR NICHOLAS AND EMPEROR WILLIAM WILL MEET SHORTLY, ADDING THAT THE TIME AND PLACE HAVE NOT YET BEEN DECIDED ON. THE PROPOSAL IS SAID TO HAVE COME FROM THE RUSSIAN EMPEROR.

ST. PETERSBURG, NOV. 12.—GENERAL SAKHAROFF TELEGRAPHED YESTERDAY THAT THE JAPANESE LAST NIGHT ATTACKED THE VILLAGE OF WUCHANG, ABOUT ONE MILE AND A HALF SOUTH OF CHUANDIANG. THE JAPANESE ASSAULTED THE VILLAGE ON THREE SIDES BUT WERE REPULSED. FOUR RUSSIANS WERE WOUNDED.

FORMER CANDY MAKER DIES OF POISONING.

NEW YORK, NOV. 12.—FERDINAND HAROLD, FORMERLY A PROSPEROUS CANDY MANUFACTURER OF CINCINNATI, AND ST. LOUIS, WAS FOUND IN A SALOON HERE TODAY SUFFERING FROM OPIUM POISONING AND DIED A FEW HOURS LATER IN A HOSPITAL. IT IS SUPPOSED THAT HE TOOK POISON WITH SUICIDAL INTENT. HE WAS SIXTY-FOUR YEARS OLD.

SPECIAL

MUSIC FOR THANKSGIVING SERVICES, TOMORROW.

THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM OF SPECIAL

MUSIC HAS BEEN ARRANGED FOR THE

THANKSGIVING SERVICES WHICH WILL BE

HELD AT THE MARKET STREET PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TOMORROW:

GLORIA BUCK

QUARTET.

I HAVE CALLED UPON THEE .. SHEPARD

QUARTET.

PRAISE THE LORD O JERUSALEM

..... MAUNDER

QUARTET.

Y ESHAI DWELL IN THE LAND .. STAINER

QUARTET.

DUETT—"MY JESUS AS THOU WILT

..... SCHNECKER

MISS ARTHUR, MR. LULL.

BULLER.

BULLETIN.

YALE 12; PRINCETON 0, FIRST HALF.

FINAL SCORE—YALE 12; PRINCETON 6.

COLORED

MAN BELIEVED TO HAVE STOLEN

BUFFALO ROBES.

HENRY BROWN, A COLORED MAN WHO

IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN DRAFTED IN DUNKIRK, O.,

ARRESTED FOR DRUNKENNESS THIS AFTERNOON AND WILL PROBABLY BE ARRAIGNED

BEFORE THE MAYOR MONDAY, ON A CHARGE

OF PETTY LARCENY. HE IS BELIEVED TO

HAVE STOLEN SOME BUFFALO ROBES THAT

HAVE BEEN REPORTEDLY TAKEN FROM THE BUGGIES ON THE STREETS.

STILL LIVES.

COLUMBUS, O., NOV. 12.—EDWARD

HARDY, OF PITTSBURG, STRUCTURAL IRON

WORKER ON A NEW SKYSCRAPER, BEING BUILT HERE, FELL THREE STOREYS INTO THE

BASEMENT TODAY, BREAKING A LEG AND

SUSTAINED INTERNAL INJURIES THAT MAY

PROVE FATAL.

GRAND JURY HAS RETURNED

INDICTMENTS AGAINST NINE MEN FOR COMPLICITY IN KILLING OF CORPORAL CLARK.

ATHENS, O., NOV. 12.—THE ATHENS GRAND JURY TODAY RETURNED INDICTMENTS AGAINST THE FOLLOWING MEMBERS OF THE FOURTEENTH UNITED STATES BATTERY, WHO ARE CHARGED WITH THE KILLING OF CORPORAL CLARK, OF THE FIFTH OHIO REGIMENT, DURING THE RIOT LAST AUGUST: JOHN L. LOTT, ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL; G. B. DAVIDSON, A. F. BARNETT, JOHN JOHNSON, C. R. PEARSON, E. D. PLUMB, W. H. RAYMOND, J. P. DUFFY, H. M. SAYLER, AI. INDICTED FOR RIOTING. LOTT WAS ALSO INDICTED FOR RIOTING. N. A. WEATHERBOLD, OF MEIGS COUNTY AND D. S. STEWART, OF PIKE COUNTY, FORMER ATTENDANTS AT THE ATHENS INSANE ASYLUM WERE INDICTED FOR MURDER FOR THE KILLING OF STEPHEN CAIN, OF THE ASYLUM.

NEW YORK, NOV. 12.—THE ATHENS GRAND JURY TODAY RETURNED INDICTMENTS AGAINST THE FOLLOWING MEMBERS OF THE FOURTEENTH UNITED STATES BATTERY, WHO ARE CHARGED WITH THE KILLING OF CORPORAL CLARK, OF THE FIFTH OHIO REGIMENT, DURING THE RIOT LAST AUGUST: JOHN L. LOTT, ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL; G. B. DAVIDSON, A. F. BARNETT, JOHN JOHNSON, C. R. PEARSON, E. D. PLUMB, W. H. RAYMOND, J. P. DUFFY, H. M. SAYLER, AI. INDICTED FOR RIOTING. LOTT WAS ALSO INDICTED FOR RIOTING. N. A. WEATHERBOLD, OF MEIGS COUNTY AND D. S. STEWART, OF PIKE COUNTY, FORMER ATTENDANTS AT THE ATHENS INSANE ASYLUM WERE INDICTED FOR MURDER FOR THE KILLING OF STEPHEN CAIN, OF THE ASYLUM.

NEW YORK, NOV. 12.—THE ATHENS GR

WHO Owns the Little Savings Bank
The Possessor
Or the South Side Trust Company?

Wedding of Miss Maude
Nasor and O. E. Sherrick
Announced.

Bad Boys Own a Shanty and Have
Things Their Own Way and Neighbors Are Kicking.
Newsy Notes.

Owing to the fact that there are several hundred small savings banks in the hands of depositors of the South Side bank, the question arises, "Who do these banks belong to, and have the holders a right to keep them and use them, and in case they are filled with coin, have the holders a right to break them open? Or must they go to the officials and have the banks opened by a key?"

The opinion prevails that the banks belong to the defunct banking company, and that they were merely loaned out to depositors to be used as receivers for small savings. Others seem to think they have a right to break them open and remove the contents, after they had paid $1 for the little bank.

The best advice would be to wait and find out, before breaking one of them open, for even attorneys are disputing over the question.

Police—Another Shanty Located.
 Yesterday evening the reporter's attention was called to a shanty west of Main street near Vine, which is the loafing place for boys ranging in age from 7 years to 14. The shanty is a cozy little nest, being fitted out with benches for chairs, a center table, a stove, and the ground floor is carpeted with saw-dust, and from reports of nearby neighbors, the boys are having a high old time every evening, and afterwards too. Yesterday a Mrs. Black, living on south Main near the shanty, said she caught two of the shanty-dwellers taking coal from her coal house, and a little later was surprised when one of the lads asked her if she had missed any coal. Another neighbor says the boys indulge in bad language, play cards, smoke cigarettes, and when fuel runs low, tear boards off of his fence and split them up for wood.

It might be best for the neighborhood, and the boys too, if the police would close the joint, for many a man can trace his downfall to just such a gathering place.

Seriously Injured.

The Seaverville Journal of yesterday contained the following:

"Last Saturday night Simon Robbins, in going to the house from the back yard, stumbled and fell across the cistern top, receiving a very serious injury to his side. Owing to his age, fatal results are feared. Mr. Robbins is one of Seaverville's oldest residents, and his many friends will hope for a speedy recovery."

Mr. Robbins is a brother of Mrs. J. W. Arnold, of Second street.

They Mean Business.
 Yesterday, Harner & Sons took a five-year lease on the business room in the M. E. Boysell block, corner of Main and Kirby streets, and will take possession as soon as Myers & Hoyt vacate. Harner & Sons are now located in the Shappell block.

Wedding Announced.

The wedding of Miss Maude Nasor, daughter of Mrs. W. W. Calvert, or south Elizabeth street, and O. E. Sherrick is announced. They will be at home to their friends after the 10th, at 716 south Elizabeth street, in part of the Rev. Bowditch house.

Linen Shower.

Thursday evening, at the home of Edgar Benson, on east Circular street, his sister, Miss Gertrude Benson, a bride-to-be, was given a linen shower. An oyster supper was served to the assembled friends.

Brief Notes and Personals.

Not long ago a section foreman for the Company, a Mr. ... went to Beaufort, S.C., to visit his mother. This is his first vacation in four years.

Mrs. C. W. Moore, of east Kirby Street, who with her children, have been summering at Ontario, California, visited her husband that she will start for home next Tuesday. She has been in very poor health since going to California.

After visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Gurney of Taft Avenue, Mrs. A. A. Gurney has returned to Marysville. A. A. and A. G. are friends are entertaining Mrs. Sarah Wetherill and daughter Bertha, of St. Johns Avenue.

The Exact Thing Required for Constipation.

As a certain purgative and stomach purifier Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for children, and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives, say R. S. Webster & Co., Galt, Ontario, Canada. For sale by all druggists.

M. LE COLONEL BRYAN.

Not long ago there appeared in a paper published in the south of France an amusing account of the life and exploits of Colonel Bryan that no doubt this gentleman fully enjoyed.

The story was written by the Paris correspondent of a country paper. It is based, so the writer says on information he got from friends of Mr. Bryan who are prominent in Paris.

A western wag filled the Frenchman with startling information, and how he must have smiled when there appeared the following in cold print:

"M. le Colonel Bryan first came into fame as one of the strange, half-savage band of cowboys who roamed over the far west, fighting the Indians and wild beasts. Imitating, perhaps, the custom of the Indian chiefs, each of the cowboys bore a nickname based on some of his exploits as a hunter and fighter. Thus M. le Colonel Bryan's title among his rough but brave and sturdy comrades was Silver Bill the Dead Shot. After the treaty of peace signed with the Indians at Chicago in 1896, Colonel Bryan went out of the cattle business and became one of the bonanza farmers of the west. He can now sit on his back stoop, as the rear veranda is called in America, and look over his fields of corn stretching further than the eye can reach in every direction. As a result of his early training on the plains, where he spent months at a time without an opportunity of talking to another human being, the former candidate for president is extremely taciturn, and can hardly be persuaded to express his opinion on the issues of a campaign. He is the author of a book of adventure called 'The First Battle,' in which some of his encounters with the Indians of the Tammany and other tribes are described at length.

In the effort to partially neutralize the strength of M. le Colonel among the cowboys and Indians who make up the largest part of the voting population west of the Allegheny mountains the republicans have M. le Roosevelt.

M. le Roosevelt is one of the leading cowboys of America, and is especially famous for once having vanquished a grizzly bear in single combat. During the last campaign M. le Colonel Roosevelt has ridden a series of horses all over the country, giving exhibitions of rough riding such as were seen in Paris a year or more ago under the direction of another American statesman."

All druggists guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Congr. Remedy and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

FRUITS.

It would astonish the average omnivorous Englishman or American to know what magnificent specimens of manhood are built almost entirely from fruits in the South Sea Islands.

According to the most authentic history of man, fruits were undoubtedly his first and primitive diet. Primitive man was active, nimble and agile. Fruits left no deposits in his veins and arteries to age and stiffen them. Fruits made for him pure blood, and breathing the open air kept it pure. His surplus energy demanded activity which kept the pure blood surging through his veins. Long life, superior power and endurance were the results.

It is a hopeful sign, however, for the future health and longevity of our race that the demand for and consumption of fruits are rapidly increasing.—From "Uncooked." Published by the Health-Culture Publishing Co., New York.

PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE IT.

Many broad minded physicians prescribe Foley's Honey and Tar, as they have never found so safe and reliable a remedy for throat and lung trouble as this great medicine. There is no other cough medicine so safe, nor contains no opium or potions and never fails to cure coughs and colds. Refuse substitutes. H. F. Vortkamp and Wm. McEvine.

WHO
Owns the Little
Savings Bank
The Possessor
Or the South Side Trust Company?

Wedding of Miss Maude
Nasor and O. E. Sherrick
Announced.

Bad Boys Own a Shanty and Have
Things Their Own Way and Neighbors Are Kicking.
Newsy Notes.

Owing to the fact that there are several hundred small savings banks in the hands of depositors of the South Side bank, the question arises, "Who do these banks belong to, and have the holders a right to keep them and use them, and in case they are filled with coin, have the holders a right to break them open? Or must they go to the officials and have the banks opened by a key?"

The opinion prevails that the banks belong to the defunct banking company, and that they were merely loaned out to depositors to be used as receivers for small savings. Others seem to think they have a right to break them open and remove the contents, after they had paid $1 for the little bank.

The best advice would be to wait and find out, before breaking one of them open, for even attorneys are disputing over the question.

Police—Another Shanty Located.

Yesterday evening the reporter's attention was called to a shanty west of Main street near Vine, which is the loafing place for boys ranging in age from 7 years to 14. The shanty is a cozy little nest, being fitted out with benches for chairs, a center table, a stove, and the ground floor is carpeted with saw-dust, and from reports of nearby neighbors, the boys are having a high old time every evening, and afterwards too. Yesterday a Mrs. Black, living on south Main near the shanty, said she caught two of the shanty-dwellers taking coal from her coal house, and a little later was surprised when one of the lads asked her if she had missed any coal. Another neighbor says the boys indulge in bad language, play cards, smoke cigarettes, and when fuel runs low, tear boards off of his fence and split them up for wood.

It might be best for the neighborhood, and the boys too, if the police would close the joint, for many a man can trace his downfall to just such a gathering place.

Seriously Injured.

The Seaverville Journal of yesterday contained the following:

"Last Saturday night Simon Robbins, in going to the house from the back yard, stumbled and fell across the cistern top, receiving a very serious injury to his side. Owing to his age, fatal results are feared. Mr. Robbins is one of Seaverville's oldest residents, and his many friends will hope for a speedy recovery."

Mr. Robbins is a brother of Mrs. J. W. Arnold, of Second street.

They Mean Business.

Yesterday, Harner & Sons took a five-year lease on the business room in the M. E. Boysell block, corner of Main and Kirby streets, and will take possession as soon as Myers & Hoyt vacate. Harner & Sons are now located in the Shappell block.

Wedding Announced.

The wedding of Miss Maude Nasor, daughter of Mrs. W. W. Calvert, or south Elizabeth street, and O. E. Sherrick is announced. They will be at home to their friends after the 10th, at 716 south Elizabeth street, in part of the Rev. Bowditch house.

Linen Shower.

Thursday evening, at the home of Edgar Benson, on east Circular street, his sister, Miss Gertrude Benson, a bride-to-be, was given a linen shower. An oyster supper was served to the assembled friends.

Brief Notes and Personals.

Not long ago a section foreman for the Company, a Mr. ... went to Beaufort, S.C., to visit his mother. This is his first vacation in four years.

Mrs. C. W. Moore, of east Kirby Street, who with her children, have been summering at Ontario, California, visited her husband that she will start for home next Tuesday. She has been in very poor health since going to California.

After visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Gurney of Taft Avenue, Mrs. A. A. Gurney has returned to Marysville. A. A. and A. G. are friends are entertaining Mrs. Sarah Wetherill and daughter Bertha, of St. Johns Avenue.

The Exact Thing Required for Constipation.

As a certain purgative and stomach purifier Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for children, and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives, say R. S. Webster & Co., Galt, Ontario, Canada. For sale by all druggists.

M. LE COLONEL BRYAN.

Not long ago there appeared in a paper published in the south of France an amusing account of the life and exploits of Colonel Bryan that no doubt this gentleman fully enjoyed.

The story was written by the Paris correspondent of a country paper. It is based, so the writer says on information he got from friends of Mr. Bryan who are prominent in Paris.

A western wag filled the Frenchman with startling information, and how he must have smiled when there appeared the following in cold print:

"M. le Colonel Bryan first came into fame as one of the strange, half-savage band of cowboys who roamed over the far west, fighting the Indians and wild beasts. Imitating, perhaps, the custom of the Indian chiefs, each of the cowboys bore a nickname based on some of his exploits as a hunter and fighter. Thus M. le Colonel Bryan's title among his rough but brave and sturdy comrades was Silver Bill the Dead Shot. After the treaty of peace signed with the Indians at Chicago in 1896, Colonel Bryan went out of the cattle business and became one of the bonanza farmers of the west. He can now sit on his back stoop, as the rear veranda is called in America, and look over his fields of corn stretching further than the eye can reach in every direction. As a result of his early training on the plains, where he spent months at a time without an opportunity of talking to another human being, the former candidate for president is extremely taciturn, and can hardly be persuaded to express his opinion on the issues of a campaign. He is the author of a book of adventure called 'The First Battle,' in which some of his encounters with the Indians of the Tammany and other tribes are described at length.

In the effort to partially neutralize the strength of M. le Colonel among the cowboys and Indians who make up the largest part of the voting population west of the Allegheny mountains the republicans have M. le Roosevelt.

M. le Roosevelt is one of the leading cowboys of America, and is especially famous for once having vanquished a grizzly bear in single combat. During the last campaign M. le Colonel Roosevelt has ridden a series of horses all over the country, giving exhibitions of rough riding such as were seen in Paris a year or more ago under the direction of another American statesman."

All druggists guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Congr. Remedy and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

FRUITS.

It would astonish the average omnivorous Englishman or American to know what magnificent specimens of manhood are built almost entirely from fruits in the South Sea Islands.

According to the most authentic history of man, fruits were undoubtedly his first and primitive diet. Primitive man was active, nimble and agile. Fruits left no deposits in his veins and arteries to age and stiffen them. Fruits made for him pure blood, and breathing the open air kept it pure. His surplus energy demanded activity which kept the pure blood surging through his veins. Long life, superior power and endurance were the results.

It is a hopeful sign, however, for the future health and longevity of our race that the demand for and consumption of fruits are rapidly increasing.—From "Uncooked." Published by the Health-Culture Publishing Co., New York.

PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE IT.

Many broad minded physicians prescribe Foley's Honey and Tar, as they have never found so safe and reliable a remedy for throat and lung trouble as this great medicine. There is no other cough medicine so safe, nor contains no opium or potions and never fails to cure coughs and colds. Refuse substitutes. H. F. Vortkamp and Wm. McEvine.

WHO
Owns the Little Savings Bank
The Possessor
Or the South Side Trust Company?

Wedding of Miss Maude
Nasor and O. E. Sherrick
Announced.

Bad Boys Own a Shanty and Have
Things Their Own Way and Neighbors Are Kicking.
Newsy Notes.

Owing to the fact that there are several hundred small savings banks in the hands of depositors of the South Side bank, the question arises, "Who do these banks belong to, and have the holders a right to keep them and use them, and in case they are filled with coin, have the holders a right to break them open? Or must they go to the officials and have the banks opened by a key?"

The opinion prevails that the banks belong to the defunct banking company, and that they were merely loaned out to depositors to be used as receivers for small savings. Others seem to think they have a right to break them open and remove the contents, after they had paid $1 for the little bank.

Police—Another Shanty Located.

Yesterday evening the reporter's attention was called to a shanty west of Main street near Vine, which is the loafing place for boys ranging in age from 7 years to 14. The shanty is a cozy little nest, being fitted out with benches for chairs, a center table, a stove, and the ground floor is carpeted with saw-dust, and from reports of nearby neighbors, the boys are having a high old time every evening, and afterwards too. Yesterday a Mrs. Black, living on south Main near the shanty, said she caught two of the shanty-dwellers taking coal from her coal house, and a little later was surprised when one of the lads asked her if she had missed any coal. Another neighbor says the boys indulge in bad language, play cards, smoke cigarettes, and when fuel runs low, tear boards off of his fence and split them up for wood.

It might be best for the neighborhood, and the boys too, if the police would close the joint, for many a man can trace his downfall to just such a gathering place.

Seriously Injured.

The Seaverville Journal of yesterday contained the following:

"Last Saturday night Simon Robbins, in going to the house from the back yard, stumbled and fell across the cistern top, receiving a very serious injury to his side. Owing to his age, fatal results are feared. Mr. Robbins is one of Seaverville's oldest residents, and his many friends will hope for a speedy recovery."

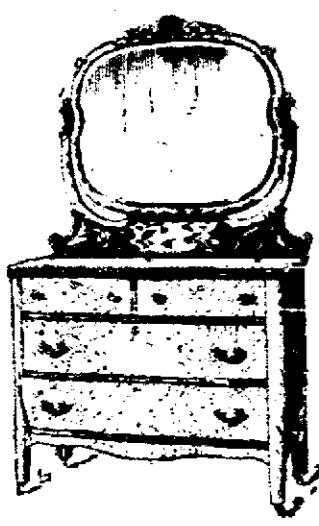

Mr. Robbins is a brother of Mrs. J. W. Arnold, of Second street.

They Mean Business.

Yesterday, Harner & Sons took a five-year lease on the business room in the M. E. Boysell block, corner of Main and Kirby streets, and will take possession as soon as Myers & Hoyt vacate. Harner & Sons are now located in the Shappell block.

Wedding Announced.

The wedding of Miss Maude Nasor

This One $18.50.

We recently unpacked a large invoice of bed room furniture, consisting of French dressers, Prin cess dressers, dressing tables and chiffoniers finished in birds eye maple, mahogany and golden oak. They are the most desirable lot of bed room furniture we have ever received. They range in price from $16.50 to $40.

Our stock of davenports is not equaled by any store in this part of Ohio. We show about forty styles of all grades and color of upholstering. They are finished in golden oak, mahogany and weathered oak. Range in price from $15 to $65. There is nothing in household furniture as elegant, comfortable and luxuriant as one of our davenports.

Do you know how much pleasure and enjoyment you can get out of a CHAFING DISH when entertaining friends? We have a large assortment in beautiful designs and finishes at reasonable prices.

Every house wife wants a nickel kettle. We sell the "Rochester." They are the standard kettle and always guaranteed. Cost no more than others.

Our 18 month effort in this department is bearing fruits. We have made this the best lace curtain department in Lima. Fine and lacy curtains at very reasonable prices. A thousand patterns to select from, priced at from 75¢ to $12.50 per pair. Rope draperies, silk draperies, portieres and etc.

DO YOU KNOW WE SHOW A LARGE STOCK OF GRILLE, and can sell a pretty top grille for a 6 foot arch for $1.50.

THE NEWSON-BOND CO.

We believe this is the best furniture store in Lima. But we are not satisfied with that. We want this to be a store where the people of Lima and Allen county can get what they want at prices below that offered in any other store of the land.

Best Store in Lima.

Only Good Goods Offered.

This One $12.50.

We always carry a large stock of Morris Chairs.

Our stock now is better than ever before. It consists of many styles of Morris chairs in golden oak, mahogany and weathered oak. We keep the style that is self-adjusted. Push the button and the back adjusts itself.

This One $9.00.

We have an immense stock of Library Tables. They are in weathered oak, mahogany and golden oak, large sizes and most elegant polish. They range in price from $7.50 to $25.

Bedding Dep't.

Many people are surprised at the extent of this department. It displays not only springs and mattresses, but blankets (cotton and wool) comforts, pillows, sheets, bed spreads, lace sets, etc.

We can sell you a GOOD MATTRESS for $8.00. A better one at $6.00 and $6.00. A "Felt" mattress at $8.00 to $12.00. Try the "Ideal Spring" (see cut) best on earth.

Our Stock Contains All Kinds and Styles of Furniture.

We Buy Only the Most Reliable Makes. You can Rely on the Construction and Finish and on the Correctness of the Prices of Every Piece We Offer.

Sell and Guarantee the Original.

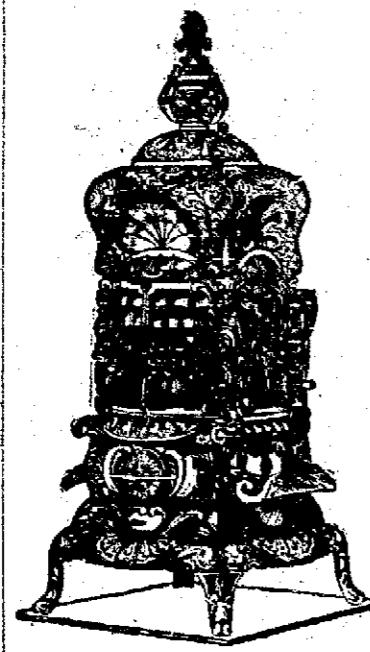

DETROIT JEWEL

None So Good in Quality and Beautiful in Designs.

They are the best Stoves made---They are all guaranteed---They are all perfect bakers---They will last a lifetime---They are all pretty stoves---They are cheap stoves because they are the best.

Regal Jewel.

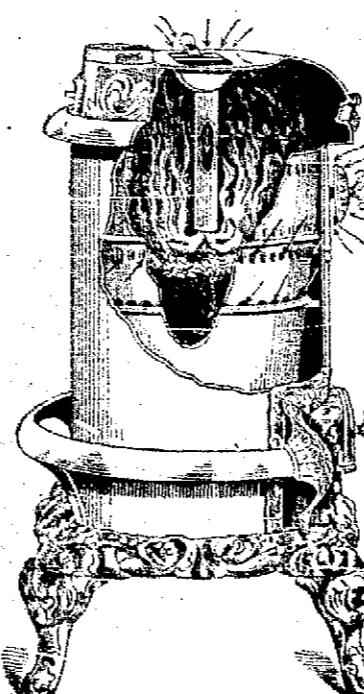

For Hard Coal.

The Regal Jewel is the best heater of its class in the market, and is one of the most popular base burners.

Vulcan Jewel

Hot Blast.

The Vulcan Jewel burns soft coal. Will hold fire 36 hours or more without attention, supplying heat one to two hours each morning from fuel put in the night before, requires no more attention than does a good coal base burner.

THE NEWSON-BOND CO.

LARGEST AND FOREMOST STORE IN LIMA.

The Best Stove Store in Lima.

The Best Carpet Store in Lima.

MYSTERY OF DREAMS.

"Speaking of dreams, I have recently found a new explanation of some of the apparently unfamiliar pictures which sometimes come to us in dreaming moments," said an observant man, "and I am vain enough to think my own little experience will explain much in connection with the supposed mystery of dreams, and we are at a loss to account for them. Recalling the pictures during our waking moments, we fail to remember ever having seen the faces we dreamed of, or the particular scenes which unfolded themselves during the moment of dreaming. But may we not be mistaken about this? May we not be more familiar with the apparently strange faces and strange pictures than we think? I have concluded that we are. Some time ago I dreamt of quarreling with a man. The violence of the dream caused me to retain a clear mental picture of the man. I knew he was not among my acquaintances, and that I had never met him, and had in fact never seen him. A few days later I met the man face to face, and the dream came back to me like a vision. I was more puzzled than ever before. I concluded I would go up to the fellow, ask him if he had ever seen me and tell him all about my strange dream. He didn't know me. What's more, he said he had never seen me, and had never met any person anywhere that could in any way have reminded him of me. Telepathy was out of the question. How could I explain the dream picture? I persisted in my inquiry, and was rewarded by solving the whole business. The fellow said something about Niagara Falls, and recalled the fact that he was there in 1900, and happened to mention an experience he had on the Canadian side with a coach driver who had tried to squeeze him out of more than he was entitled to. There was an explanation of my dream. In my sleeping moment I had called up the old impression of violence, due to the quarrel between this stranger and the coachman, and instead of involving the coachman I had involved myself. Yet I had merely glanced at the two men at the time. But there was an explanation of a dream picture. How many pictures, apparently strange to us in dreaming moments, may be explained in this way? It seems to me that my experience may explain much. At any rate, I give it out for what it is worth.---New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A PHILADELPHIA INCIDENT.

Philadelphia Ledger---A procession of little tots, marching to or from school under the charge of their young teachers, was taken through Independence Square. Instantly they broke ranks and rushed upon the grass, dancing and scampering about in ecstatic delight, tossing up the dried leaves that had fallen from the trees now nearly bare. They were like captive birds released from the cages, and to the man who looked on the picture brought mingled pleasure and compassion. How rarely these children can experience the happiness of even so remote a touch of nature as is suggested by a city square. Why must so large a portion of their young lives be passed without the sight of grass or trees, or of more of the blue sky than looks down into the narrow streets? Their own homes are often dark and forlorn and their school houses are quite as cheerless, with no playground except the street or a narrow yard paved with concrete. The dear old squares that Penn himself reserved are almost the only open spaces in a great wilderness of narrow streets and only to a minority of city children are even these accessible. We are doing a little better in the suburbs but the deplorable results of past neglect are hideous to think upon. Those wise and good citizens who are working for the multiplication of small parks and playgrounds in the crowded sections must find supporters in all who have ever seen a group of children turned loose under the state house elms.

IT WAS THE LATE MARKIS.

(From London Answers.)

Mrs. Porkdollars has not as yet got over the novelty of riches. At the same time she is not inclined to admit this, and it is her great desire that the society with which she is now entitled to mix by virtue of her husband's wealth shall think she was born in the purple.

Recently she was at a big dinner party, and as she was being placed from drawing-room to dining-room she noticed a marble bust on one of the pillars in the hall.

"Do you know who that is?" she inquired of her cavalier.

"That is Marcus Aurelius," was the answer.

"Oh, is it, now?" ejaculated the lady.

"But can you tell me," she added promptly, "whether it is the present markis or the late markis? I do get so mixed up with your dukes and things!"

A BAPTIST FISH.

During a recent Baptist convention held in Charleston Rev. Dr. Greene, of Washington, strolled down to the Battery one morning to take a look across the harbor at Fort Sumter. An old negro was sitting on the sea wall fishing. Dr. Greene watched the lone fisherman, and finally saw him pull up an odd-looking fish—a cross between a toad and a catfish.

"What kind of fish is that, old man?" inquired Dr. Greene.

"Dey calls it de Baptist fish," re plied the fisherman, as he tossed it away, in deep disgust.

"Why do they call it the Baptist fish?" asked the minister.

"Because dey spoll so soon after dey comes outen de water," answered the fisherman.—Argonaut.

BROODING TROUBLE.

(From the Boston Transcript.) Episcopalian who want to be divorced and remarried will do well to hurry up; the next general convention is only three years off and the disposition of the denomination may have changed by that time.

The Only Kind.

Victim—I thought you said that land was well watered.

Real Estate Agent—So it is.

Victim—Nonsense. There's no water there at all except eastern—

Real Estate Agent—Well, what's that but well water?—Exchange.

THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT

PUBLISHED BY
THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT
PUBLISHING COMPANY,
120 West High Street
THE ONLY NEWSPAPER IN LIMA
RECEIVING ASSOCIATED PRESS
REPORTS BY WIRE.

Telephones 84.

Entered at the Postoffice at Lima, O.
as Second Class Matter.

Member of Associated Press.

THE DAILY TIMES-DEMOCRAT is issued every evening, except Sunday, and will be delivered by carriers at any address in the city at the rate of 10 cents per week.
THE SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES-DEMOCRAT issued Tuesday and Friday, will be mailed to any address at the rate of $1 per year, payable in advance. The Semi-Weekly is a seven column, eight page paper, the largest and best newspaper in Allen County.

Persons desiring the Times-Democrat delivered to their homes may secure the same by postal card address, or by order through telephone No. 84.

Terms of Subscription.
Daily edition, one year.....$5.00
Daily edition, six months.....$2.50
Daily edition, three months.....$1.25
Daily edition, one week.....$0.25
Semi-Weekly edition, one year.....$1.00

Official paper of the City of Lima and County of Allen.

Any subscriber ordering the address of the paper changed must always give the former as well as present address.

When delivery is irregular please make immediate complaint at the office.

All business, news, letters or telegraph dispatches must be addressed,
THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT,
Lima, Ohio

WEATHER.

Washington, Nov. 12.—For Ohio Fair tonight, warmer in south portion, Sunday fair, colder in north, central and northeast portions.

Peabodyism in Colorado has reached that pretension where it means civil war.

It is growing more overwhelming as the hours roll by, but the democratic party is elastic, and it will bounce up again inside of four years. It may even get on its feet in Ohio, within twelve months. This depends, however, largely on the action of the next republican state convention.

THE REASON FOUND.

The press of the country has been looking about, analyzing the returns, re-reading the platforms, and going over the personalities of the two leaders in the late campaign to find a satisfactory reason for the result nationally. Some of the delvers into the occult—think they have solved the problem, and we accept all their solutions as correct.

Is over the result in the county that we were most deeply mystified, and for which we sought a reason, and we have one that is absolutely correct.

We neglected during the course of the campaign to say that a certain candidate for commissioner was a horse thief, and a regular Bill Sykes; that a certain candidate for infirmary director was afflicted with kleptomania and was a buccaneer right; that two well known candidates for justice of the peace had been known to take tappers from dead men's eyes, and even to lift cattle; that one certain candidate for councilman-at-large could not withstand ten thousand—votes; that two other candidates for council were Bedouin free-booters and should be convicted by the people of being thimble riggers, and that seven candidates for the board of education had entered into a scheme with a foreigner to become regular, real, down right sophomores.

Had we followed the precedent set us for the past twenty years by our distinguished-in-that-line morning contemporary, the result might have been different.

Be that as it may, the outcome, and our failure to say all the above mentioned mean but untrue things about the opposition candidates, almost convinces us that politically, and journalistically—if you are running a republican paper—"honesty is not the best policy."

We didn't win, but we have a clear conscience.

With the Watson orchestra, Miss Arthur and Prof. Lull assisting our own Thos. H. Jones will tell the story of his trip to the Holy Land at the Market Street Presbyterian church, Monday evening Nov. 14, for benefit of the Sunday school. Admission twenty-five cents.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Col. Roam, who resided at the Colonial Hotel, has returned from a four weeks' visit with Marion friends.

Detective Hugh Patton went to Toledo this morning to take "Mickey" Hollister to the work house.

Master Galt Hardesty, of St. Johns avenue, is visiting at the home of his grandparents in Ada.

Miss Mayme Keegan, of Utica, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Balston, of west Market street.

A NEW BROOM SWEEPS CLEAN

And There Should Be One in Every Hand Before Next Tuesday.

Lima Can Well Afford to Put on Holiday Attire As a Greeting to Members of the Hospital Commission.

The executive committee which stands at the head of what is being actively done in the effort to secure the new state hospital, is especially pleased to note the interest taken by Lima's business men in the coming of the state commission next Tuesday. Expressions of encouragement are heard on every hand, and the merchants will take especial pride in doing what they can as individuals to impress the visitors with the importance of Lima as a city, in all that the term implies.

There is little to be said that does not suggest itself to those who can see the need of being dressed in the best bib and tucker next Tuesday. A clean city is the principal necessity, as it displays a local pride which goes far in the way of influencing men who look at what is being done, as a criterion of what will be done. An appearance of neglect or slothfulness would bespeak a careless attitude toward the magnificent gift Lima is hoping for, and it is the duty of every citizen to have his place of business and his home looking as attractive as possible. A new broom sweeps the cleanest and Lima occasionally needs

THE MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 12.—The passing of the election period has resulted in the expected animation and buoyancy of the stock market and, having been anticipated and provided for, much speculative realizing has accompanied the new buying. Sales have been well absorbed and this has kept alive speculative confidence in prices. Belief in further revival of business held back by the election has been unprecedented and the ease of money has prevented any check upon speculation for lack of cheap funds. The various factors threatening some depletion of available funds have not affected the confidence of speculative borrowers.

New York, Nov. 12.—The tendency of prices at the opening was upward in the stock market today, but the gains were of slight fractions outside of a few low-priced stocks. Atchison and U. S. Steel were conspicuous exceptions, showing a small loss over night. Large orders were executed in Erie, Pennsylvania, Southern Pacific and Amalgamated Copper. Chicago Terminal preferred and Wabash moved up a point and the preferred a half.

The weight of realizing overbore the buying and carried prices backwards, except for advances in specialities. U. S. Steel preferred was the most prominent stock to move against the current, with a rise to 86. The reaction carried the standard railroad line back to or below last night's level, including the leading racers, Grangers, Trunk lines, Coalers, Southrons and Southwesterns. Iowa Central preferred rose 5. New York, Chicago & St. Louis 4½, Detroit Southern pfd. 4, Chicago Union traction pfd. and Westinghouse Electric 3½, and Kansas City Southern pfd., Detroit United Railway, Lackawanna, Chicago and Alton, Wheeling & Lake Erie, General Electric, Bag pfd., Pump pfd. and American Express 2 to 3. Pacific Mail lost 3½ and Northwestern, Erie second pfd., St. Joseph and Grand Island, the Toledo, St. Louis & Western stocks, Pump, Metropolitan Street Railway, Sloss Shefield Steel and Sugar a point. The decline was not arrested and the closing was irregular.

Money on Call.

New York, Nov. 12.—Close Money on call nominal; No loans: Time loans, steady; sixty days 3½@3½; 90 days and 6 months 3½ per cent.

Prime mercantile paper 3½@4½ per cent. Sterling exchange strong with actual business in bankers bills at 486.00@486.70 for demand at 483.08@483.40 for sixty day bills.

Post rates 48½ and 48½. Commercial bills 482@4½. Bar silver 5½. Mexican dollars 46½. Government bonds steady. Railroad bonds firm.

Clearing House Statement.

New York, Nov. 12.—The statement of averages of clearing house banks of this city for the five days of this week shows: Loans $1,125,089,000; decrease $14,780,600. Deposits $1,176,045,000; decrease $20,107,400. Circulation $42,313,300; decrease $271,600. Legal tenders $75,317,100; decrease $1,502,600. Specie $226,558,700; decrease $7,711,100. Reserve $302,966,800; decrease $6,244,700. Reserve required $394,011,250; decrease $5,026,001. Sur-

THE POETIC SIDE.

Now that the politicians have had their day, it is time for the historical rhymester to get a whack at Tuesday's results. Why shall we not have an adaptation of Cock Robin suited to the occasion? Something running on this wise, for example, might be appropriate and entertaining:

Who killed Judge Parker?
"I," said bold Theodore.
"With my indignant roar—
I killed Judge Parker."

Who saw him die?
"I," said poor David Hill.
"Though much against my will—
I saw him die."

Who caught his blood?
"I," said Tom Taggart. "He
Spilled most of it on me—
I caught his blood."

Who made his shroud?
"I," said the Evening Post.
"It is my proudest boast—
I made his shroud."

Space forbids following this poet further in his wanderings. But the fellow who tells us how—

In fourteen hundred ninety-two—
Columbus sailed the ocean blue—
May claim our attention a while longer while he brings his narrative down to very modern times by assuring us that—

In nineteen four the Constitution suffered at the hands of Roosevelt, who pierced it through and through.

In view of the intractable syllabic character of the new century, he may vary his style slightly and narrate that—

By Anno Domini nineteen-four
The Constitution was no more.
For which a neat alternative would be—

Eric nineteen-four was safely past.
The Constitution breathed its last.

Again, here is a recent event distinctly summarized:

In nineteen-four T. Roosevelt he was re-elected—huly gee!

Of course, it requires some intelligent study of the figures and their steady growth ever since the returns began to come in to grasp the full significance of this, explanatory ending:

Then there are the rhymed legends by the aid of which children with treacherous memories commit the names and order of the presidents. A fair sample of most of them may be gleaned from the opening lines of the oldest we know:

First stands the lofty Washington, The noble, great, immortal one;

The elder Adams next we see, And Jefferson comes number three.

And so on down through the list of chief magistrates. We do not recall that our present president has ever been immortalized in these verses. He is large enough and active enough to occupy more than the usual allotted space. For example,

Next Theo. Roosevelt takes his stand, Soft speech on lips, big stick in hand, Through three full years by service he acquired such facility

In molding national events After the mode of presidents, that all the people cried: "Come, brother,"

Your one good term deserves another."

THE DEISEL-WEMMER CO.

WANTS 100 GIRLS TO LEARN THE CIGAR MAKING TRADE. WILL BE WELL PAID WHILE LEARNING. APPLY AT FACTORY BUILDING CORNER NORTH MAIN ST. AND PENN. R. R. 296-th-sat-fr

ADULTERATED PEPPER.

Red pepper is often adulterated with red lead. These adulterations can be easily detected. Pure red pepper ought not to sink in water. Put a little of the suspected pepper in a glass of water. If any of it sinks to the bottom you may be sure that the portion that sinks is red lead and not red pepper.

If such is found to be the case, the specimen of pepper should be sent back to the grocer from whom it was obtained, accompanied by the statement that his pepper is adulterated, and is not fit to use.—Medical Talk.

A plan proposed, it is reported, is to sell the property to pay the bonded and other indebtedness and accounts.

The reason given for this is that the idea is gaining ground that the running of the association's affairs by separate committees for different parts of the work is not likely to work so harmoniously as was at first thought.

A plan proposed, it is reported, is to sell the property to pay the bonded and other indebtedness and accounts.

The reason given for this is that the idea is gaining ground that the running of the association's affairs by separate committees for different parts of the work is not likely to work so harmoniously as was at first thought.

Widows in Korea never remarry no matter how young they may be.

Even though they had been married only a month, they may not take a second husband.

Boys' 50c Dark Flannelette Blouse Waists at 29c.

Size 4 to 12.

Our 25c Grades at

15c.
These prices Monday only.

FINE

New Quarters Now

Occupied

By the Lodges

Which Formerly Met in Ashton Hall

Top Floors of New Central Building Now the Home of Allen Lodge.

Gavel Brought From the Holy Land Presented to the Lodge at Last Night's Session by Thos. H. Jones.

Allen Lodge No. 223, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, after occupying the hall on the third floor of the Ashton block for a period of 34 years, has established a new home in the new Central building on north Main street and now has one of the finest lodge headquarters in the state. The new rooms have all modern conveniences including steam heat and are so arranged as to be most convenient for lodge purposes. All of the old furniture belonging to the lodge has been overhauled and re-varnished, the floor of the main room has been neatly carpeted and the new quarters present a handsome and inviting appearance throughout. The lodge occupies all of the rooms on the fourth floor of the building and has a good sized banquet hall above them. Ohio Encampment No. 256, and Shawnee Lodge No. 280, Daughters of Rebekah, also meet in the new quarters.

Yesterday, Pennsylvania Engineer S. P. Craig purchased a very desirable piece of property on Suttenfield street, opposite Reservoir lake, of J. D. Bond, and will take possession of it about December 1. Engineer Craig will decide in the meantime whether to sell or rent the property on Masterson avenue, which has been his home for some time.—F. Wayne Sentinel.

Good Health to the Children

Children especially are fond of dainties, and the housekeeper must look carefully to their food.

As good cake can be made only with good eggs, so also a cake that is healthful as well as dainty must be raised with a pure and perfect baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in the preparation of the highest quality of food. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, doughnuts, crusts, etc., and what is more important, renders the food wholesome and agreeable to young and old.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

but Jackson has offered much more flattering inducements. President and Receiver Samuel Hunt, who is now in the east, will select the site for the shops at Jackson when he returns home.

Yesterday, Pennsylvania Engineer S. P. Craig purchased a very desirable piece of property on Suttenfield street, opposite Reservoir lake, of J. D. Bond, and will take possession of it about December 1. Engineer Craig will decide in the meantime whether to sell or rent the property on Masterson avenue, which has been his home for some time.—F. Wayne Sentinel.

The first electric car ever run in Van Wert County crossed over the line between Delphos and Van Wert, yesterday. The one o'clock car had on board several of the officials of the line and at their request it was run across the canal bridge.

SOME THOUGHTS.

Woodsworth:—"Nature never did betray the heart that loved her."

Bacon:—"In Nature things move violently to their place and calmly in their place."

Bacon:—"He that follows Nature is never out of the way. Nature is sometimes subdued, but seldom extinguished."

L. Murray:—"Temperance and exercise, how little soever they may be regarded, are the best means of preserving health."

Cicero:—"I follow Nature as the surest guide, and resign myself with implicit obedience to her sacred ordinances."

FOR RENT.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Brick Business Block, 3 stories, large rooms, paying good income. Will exchange for farm, or Lima property. P. O. Box 415, Lima, Ohio.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Modern seven room house with electric lights, bath, etc., at the corner of Wayne and Metcalf streets. Inquire at 411 north Metcalf street.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Front room, furnished with heat, privilege of bath. Call at 715 west Wayne.

FOR RENT—The fine suite of rooms now the office of Dr. L. J. Stuehr, on 2nd floor of Metropolitan block. J. O. Ohler.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—5 single rooms in the Delsel block; suitable for sleeping apartments, gas and electric light. Enquire of Henry Delsel at cigar factory. Both phones No. 465. e-o-d-if

FOR RENT.

MUST Be Some Smoke
About
Where the Fire

Is Kept Burning By Repeated Rumors.

Railroad Men Do Not Think the Erie-C. H. & D. Deal Idle Gossip.

And Agree That the Proposition to Give the Central System a Seaboard Outlet Is a Logical One.

Local railroad people, having settled down to the conviction that the rumored Erie-C. H. & D. deal is not idle gossip, says the Toledo Blade, are discussing the probable effect such a deal will have on the railroad situation in this territory. It is generally conceded that a combination of the Erie with the C. H. & D. and other lines in the Great Central system is a logical proposition. It is argued that while the Great Central system is one of the most important railroad interests in the country, it is practically confined to three of the central states—Ohio, Michigan, and Indiana—and lacks the essential feature of an outlet to the seaboard. A combination with the Erie, which extends from Chicago to New York, would give the system just what is needed most to make it independent of the great trunk lines. The Erie owns something over 2,000 miles of main track, and the Great Central over 4,000. If the proposed combination or merger goes through, it means a system embracing something over 6,000 miles of track, with an important outlet to New York and splendid facilities for handling export grain and other commodities.

Several local railroad men who have been in Chicago this week report that they were told by prominent Erie people while in that city that the Erie was coming into Toledo; that the pending deal was sure to go through. T. H. Tracy, general solicitor of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, is in New York. He will not be home before next Monday. It is believed that his visit may have something to do with the present negotiations.

A New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, in writing of the Erie-C. H. & D. negotiations, gives the following data additional to that published in yesterday's Blade:

A financial authority states that the negotiations between Erie and Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton interests, looking to control of the latter, are not likely to reach a conclusion within two or three weeks. The status of the affair is now as follows:

"An option on the controlling interest in C. H. & D. has been secured by H. B. Hollins & Co. and J. P. Morgan & Co. The former firm figures as the dominant interest in this option, and with it all negotiations for control must be conducted."

"H. B. Hollins & Co. can deliver control and no one else. The C. H. & D. syndicate, so-called, consisting of United States Mortgage and Trust, F. H. Prince, Eugene Zimmerman and others, some of whom were also in the original Pere Marquette syndicate, has no voice in any sale, they having given up their rights to negotiate under the option indicated above."

"This option, it is stated, calls for a payment in cash, but at what price is not known."

"If the Erie or any other road makes a price payable in securities the latter will probably be underwritten immediately by J. P. Morgan & Co. and H. B. Hollins & Co. at a price to net a return sufficient to pay the cash price called for by the option."

"It is not desired, nor has it been decided, that the Erie is thinking of the road. It is stated to be unlikely, however, that any sale will be made within two or three weeks at the least."

"An examination of the property and a satisfactory agreement on the price are essentials. They cannot be arrived at in a day. Also the legal question is an important one. Erie in control of C. H. & D., which controls Pere Marquette, would certainly own two parallel and competing lines between Chicago and Buffalo."

"This legal phase must be closely investigated. We understand that the Hollins option covers the control of C. H. & D. and the stock bought in afterward for retirement. There will not be any minority left out in C. H. & D."

"The Pere Marquette minority is still outstanding, and a lease of the system cannot be made while this is the case."

"In all probability the ultimate arrangement will call for the retirement of all the outstanding stocks of all companies and a lease of the property."

GLOWING
Tribute to the Driver of the Iron Horse,
The Cool and Vigilant Man Who Is Entrusted With the Lives of Thousands.

FIREMAN INJURED.

Explosion of Dynamite Causes Loss of Quarter Million.

A Five Story Marble Front

Building Just Erected Ruined by Shock. Fire Originated From Some Unknown Cause in Seven Story Block Which Was Reduced to Ashes.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 12.—A fire, accompanied by an explosion of either dynamite or powder occurred today on Gay street, the principal business street of the city, causing a loss of about $250,000. Six firemen were injured.

The most seriously hurt is Fireman J. B. Hawkins, both of whose legs were broken.

A number of other persons sustained slight cuts from flying glass but none was seriously hurt. The fire originated from an unknown cause in the Woodruff Hardware Company's seven-story building which was reduced to ashes. The recently completed five-story marble front building occupied by the Cable Pinao company, was wrecked by the explosion which followed the fire in the Woodruff building adjoining and the six-story Arnold Henegar & Doyle Wholesale Shoe House was damaged by both fire and water.

The explosion shattered almost all window glass and many show cases in nearly every store within a radius of two blocks of the fire.

The blaze was confined to the Woodruff block. It is believed the losses are covered by insurance.

NEW

Trial Out of the Question

And Sentence

Will Be Pronounced Next Saturday.

Motion in the Case of the State Against R. O. Woods Overruled.

And the Next Step Will Be an Appeal to the Higher Courts. Divorce Matters Receive Attention Today.

in the divorce petition of Del. Bartlett vs. Edith Bartlett, resulted in a decree being granted on the ground of gross neglect of duty. The defendant, according to witnesses, refused to live with her husband and is now making her home at Harvey, Ill.

Sold by Sheriff.

At sheriff's sale this morning the property described in the case of Samuel Collins vs. Harry Numple, was disposed of by the former, who secured it at the appraised value, $3334. The property is located at 605 south Central avenue, and was the location of Rumpie's coal and wood yard.

Marriage Licenses.

Frank Moorman, 34, oil pumper, and Jane Kehler, 28, both of Amanda township.

COMPANY

Organized to Manufacture Automobile Fenders.

Papers were sent to Columbus from Middletown, O., a few days ago for the incorporation of a company to manufacture an automobile fender. T. C. Calvert, of Middletown, Jason G. Lamison and Dr. A. A. Miesse, of this city, are among the incorporators. The fender is an invention of Dr. Miesse's.

Sewing by the day wanted at 515 Ontario street. 7-61*

OFFICIAL

Ticket of Candidates for Grand Lodge.

There Is But One Contest, That for Office of Grand Vice Chancellor.

The official ticket of candidates for office in the Ohio Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias has been mailed to all lodges of the organization in this state by Grand Keeper of Records and Seals William Beatty.

There will be a contest for only one office, that of grand vice chancellor, for which office O. M. Baker, of Mason and James Dunn, of Cleveland are candidates. The ticket is as follows:

Grand Chancellor—Wm. F. Bruce, No. 195, Mt. Gilead.

Grand Vice Chancellor—O. M. Baker, No. 118, Mason; James Dunn, No. 68, Cleveland.

Grand Prelate—A. R. Kerns, No. 409, Findlay.

Grand Master of Exchequer—Geo. B. Donavin, No. 29, Delaware.

Grand Master-at-Arms—John A. Rindgold, No. 449, Cumminsville.

Grand Inner Guard—Jacob Woehrle, No. 4, Columbus.

Grand Outer Guard—Clem. V. Hoke, No. 30, Van Wert.

REMAINS

Of Mrs. Agner Will Be Taken to Ottawa for Burial.

The remains of Mrs. Harriett J. Agner of 737 north Main street, who died yesterday morning, will be taken to Ottawa tomorrow morning for burial. The funeral services will be held at Ottawa.

What's the secret of happy, vigorous health? Simply keeping the bowels, the stomach, the liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Bitters does it.

Michael's Monday Special!

Boys' 50c Dark Fannelette Blouse Waists at

29c

Sizes 4 to 12.

Our 25c Grades at

15c.

These Prices Monday only.

Isn't Your New Overcoat Due?

It's about now that cold storage packages are due from Manitoba. Never mind, we have an Overcoat waiting for you.

IT IS ALL READY to move at a moment's notice.

Copyrighted, 1904, by E. L. B. & Co.

Here are the made-to-order styles at half the made-to-order prices. Our assortment of high grade tailor made suits is second to none. A full line of up-to-date furnishing goods, and prices no higher than others ask for "has beens."

Not "How Cheap" But "How Good." Your Money Back If You Want It.

H. A. ALBRECHT,

The American Clothier.

"Meet Me at the Lima House Corner."

Queen Quality

A Satisfactory Shoe.

Queen Quality is designed and finished for the extremely particular—everything about it denotes a high order of manufacture.

Its accurate fit and correct fashioning stamp an impression of worth upon its wearers—hence, its splendid reputation.

Boots $3.00 THE PAIR

A few Specials $3.50

A Dozen Reasons.

There are a dozen reasons for buying "Queen Quality" Shoes—but your own comfort is excuse enough—it eases the foot because it fits it.

Fall designs for every need are now being shown—we invite your critical examination.

GOODING'S, 230 North Main.

With the Watson orchestra, Miss Arthur and Prof. Lull assisting our own Thos. H. Jones will tell the story of his trip to the Holy Land at the Market Street Presbyterian church, Monday evening, Nov. 14, for benefit of the Sunday school. Admission twenty-five cents.

Ethics.

Her conduct at last became such that her pastor expostulated.

"You are not doing as you would be done by," said he.

The woman regarded him amazedly. "I confess I don't understand you, sir," she said.

"Well your goings-on are shaking society, and surely you wouldn't have society shake you," said the minister.

Now this view of the matter was quite new to her, as it seemed, and that she was not unaffected was plain at once.—Puck.

SOCIETY and the CLUBS.

A smart gown of silver grey velvet, trimmed with ruffles and shirring of self, with gray silk knotted fringe. The crush girdle is of deep gray panne velvet, and the soft folded stock and yoke are of gray chiffon.

CLUB CALENDAR.

Monday, November 14: Listainers Miss Canwell. Lotus Mrs. Hoyt. Ariatius Mrs. Beach. Philanthropic Miss Eppert. Chautauqua Miss Gordon. Twentieth Century Mrs. Melby. Clonian Mrs. Owen. Round Table Mrs. Hiner. Sorosis Mrs. Simpkin. Bay View Mrs. White. Tuesday, November 15: Etude Mrs. Mehaffey. F. S. E. and Mrs. F. C. McCoy. Tuesday Afternoon Whist. Mrs. Fall. Wednesday, November 16: Hawath Mrs. Dewees. Afternoon Whist Club. Mrs. R. Banta. Thursday, November 17: Sappho Mrs. Feltz. Wimodoughais Mrs. Clark. Friday, November 18: A. F. Mrs. Ireland. Tutorium Mrs. Cable.

American flags were every where evident at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McLaughlin, on Thursday evening, when the T. and T. club met to discuss the "War Game," considered as a business, under the following topics:

"Battles Which Have Changed History" Members. National Hymn Piano. Mrs. Stueber.

"How Armies Are Raised and Maintained in the Field" Mr. McLaughlin.

"The Red Cross" Mrs. Roby. "How an Ironclad Moves and Fights" Mrs. Jacobs.

Instrumental music, Miss McLaughlin. "Will Arbitration Supplant War?" Mr. Miller.

Discussion led by Dr. Stueber.

On Tuesday afternoon, Miss May Sullivan, of east Market street, will entertain forty ladies at cards.

The first dance of the Cotillion club was a very enjoyable affair of Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. W. Clark, of 223 north Elizabeth street, will entertain the Wimodoughais on Thursday afternoon. The response to roll call will be some new receipts suitable for the coming holiday.

Mrs. E. M. Stradley entertained fourteen ladies at a thimble party on Tuesday afternoon, and the hours were spent very pleasantly.

The Afternoon Whist Club was entertained by Miss Minnie Herold, on Miss Hallie Hoover, of north West street, entertained ten ladies on Thursday evening, complimenting Mrs. Edward Townsend, of El Paso, Texas.

The Spinet was entertained on Thursday afternoon by Miss Frances Colvin. Mrs. Stagman secured the prize, a beautiful plate.

Mrs. R. H. Ebersole spent several days in Van Wert this week, giving several musical numbers on the program of the Home Missionary convention held there.

Mrs. A. C. Feltz will be hostess for the Ancients on Thursday afternoon.

The account contained in "The Mirror" of the musical attractions at Festival Hall, World's Fair, for the past week, pays a glowing tribute to one in whom all Lima people are interested.—Winnie Sullivan-Romer.

The symphony concert, Friday night, served to introduce a St. Louis singer of rare qualities. Mrs. William J. Romer was the soloist of the occasion and was heard in a familiar aria by Bemberg and an entirely new composition, still unpublished, by Max Bendix. Mrs. Romer is one of the most artistic singers heard at the World's Fair, and with her acquired skill are admirably blended superior temperamental gifts. This soprano possesses a beautiful, rich strong voice, and sings with authority, style and finish. The Bendix song—a setting of "Leaven's "Two Sisters"—is a musically composition, cleverly illustrative of the text. Although the song is ungrateful from the vocalist's point of view, Mrs. Romer's interpretation evidenced her musical intelligence and the absence of artifice in her work. This singer's superb vocal equipment was, however, completely exploited in the Bemberg aria. A magnetic personality and a fine stage presence add to the charm of Mrs. Romer's work.

Mrs. Charles Hollister and little daughter are guests of London, O. friends.

Miss Edna Francis entertained a few friends on Thursday evening, complimenting her guest, Miss Van Doren, of Pointe, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Robbins, of north Jefferson street, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Robbins, of Findlay, left Thursday for a three-weeks hunting trip in northern Michigan.

Last evening the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. Mitchell was again thrown open to receive a large number of their friends, the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Frey's orchestra furnished the music in the ball room for those who were inclined to dance. Many made use of the card tables which were placed in quiet corners, and others took advantage of the opportunity for social conversation. An elaborate lunch was served in the dining room, which was resplendent with the lights from the pink shaded candles, the table being particularly beautiful.

Next Wednesday afternoon, the Home Missionary Society of Market street Presbyterian church will give a Missionary Tea at the home of Mrs. A. S. Creps, of west North street and a most cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested.

The Monday Night Club and a large number of guests were entertained by Mrs. Charles Phillips. Mrs. Frank Steiner won the prize, a cut glass syrup jug.

Honoring Mrs. Joseph Jones, of Cincinnati, Ind., Mrs. N. W. Cunningham entertained the old Fortnightly Cooking Club, at a well appointed luncheon on Friday at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles Banta was hostess for the Ancients on Thursday afternoon.

A large number of guests also enjoyed a delightful afternoon at cards.

Mrs. J. C. Ross is spending a few days in Toledo. The Frohen Stunden will meet with

ENGLISH PRESS DIFFERS WIDELY

In Its Comments on

What Will Be Effect of Election of Roosevelt President.

London Spectator Thinks the

Monroe Doctrine Will Be Worth Less Than Paper It Was Written on, Unless Roosevelt Has Navy to Back Up, "Thus Far and No Farther."

London, Nov. 12.—The weekly news-papers issued today devote consider-able space to the presidential election in the United States and all dwell lengthily upon the personality of President Roosevelt as the prime factor in the republican victory. The most notable article appears in the Spec-tator, which preludes a splendid tribute to the President with the admis-sion:

"For ourselves we do not express any special regard for the republican party," while in the same paragraph it says the result of the election is "a subject for congratulation through-out the English-speaking world." The Spectator then asks:

"What will he do with it?" And proceeds to credit Mr. Roosevelt with an ideal programme for the next four years, the standard of which will be "reason, justice, moderation and com-mon sense."

Discussing the prospective policy of the American government in relation to foreign affairs the Spectator says: "President Roosevelt will not be afraid to insist that the United States shall hold her own among the great pow-ers of the world but he will not seek foreign entanglements. The paper continues:

"If the Monroe doctrine is not to be consigned to the political waste-paper basket it must rest, in the last recourse, upon naval and military power; and if America has not a fleet strong enough to say "Thus far and no farther" to those who shall challenge the doctrine that doctrine in the future will not prove worth the pa-per which the presidential message of 1823 was written on."

After predicting that the Panama canal will be completed by President Roosevelt, the Spectator says:

"In the far East and in all that concerns the future of China we may expect the president, acting under the advice of secretary or state Hay who is now unquestionably one of the ablest, if not the ablest, of living dip-lomats, to maintain the attitude al-ready adopted."

Concluding the Spectator says:

"We believe his administration will leave indelible traces upon the larger part of the English-speaking race and that for the whole of that race it will be a lesson in and a sound ex-ample of sound, sane government."

The Speaker and Saturday Review

take a less enthusiastic view of Presi-dent Roosevelt's foreign policy. The Speaker says it is represented by a determination to "Get there just the same" which involving as it does a disregard of treaties and the employ-ment of armed force upon the slightest provocation or pretext, represents a grave danger."

The Saturday Review says:

"We have often expressed the con-viction that this country has little to gain in the end from a translation in action of President Roosevelt's views of foreign affairs. It has been the fashion among us of late to ap-plaud republican victories and encour-age the idea among Americans that we look upon the democratic party as less friendly to us than the republi-can. This we believe is a delusion only one degree more mischievous than the notion that an enterprising foreign policy upon the part of the newly-elected president will necessarily ensure to our benefit."

PROTESTED INNOCENCE

But Constant Worry and Fear of Conviction Caused Him Sud-den Death.

Mrs. C. Bauer, next Tuesday after-noon at 2 o'clock.

The Bay View club will meet with Mrs. Will White, of west High street.

Royally Entertained.

At the home of Mrs. Dougherty, 758 Greenlawn avenue, the Catholic La-dies of Ohio gave a progressive pedro party, entertaining the Catholic Knights and a few invited guests.

Mr. Fred Barrigan came home the gents' prize. Miss Margaret Johnson won the ladies' prize, and Miss Mary Mattock drew the lucky card for the consoling luncheon. A refreshing luncheon was served after which the served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Orchard and son Arthur; Mr. and Mrs. Vanpelt and children; Mr. and Mrs. Deck, Mr. and Mrs. Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Holtzfoister, Mr. Walter Deck, Mr. and Mrs. Latham, Mr. Joe Sprague, Mrs. Fife, Mrs. Settimeyer, Misses Mary Winters, Magdalene Vanpelt, Addie Deck and Emma Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Salem Reed request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter

Florence La Verne, to

Mr. Samuel Clyde Coleman,

On Thursday evening, Nov. 24th,

Nineteen hundred and four,

At their country home, Shawnee Tp.

Eight o'clock.

NEW INCORPORATIONS.

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—Incorporations are The Pearl Amusement Co., Cleveland, by Milton K. Einstein, Mark Althen, Arthur A. Lederer, John C. Knapp and Robt. M. Hass; roller skating, music and theatrical enter-tainment, $15,000.

The Broyton-Woodsworth Company, of Cleveland, by Wm. B. Braxton, J. H. Woodsworth, Levi A. Johnson, H. C. Engert, and Conway W. Noble. They will make steel tired wheels; $25,000.

The American Construction Co., Cleveland, by G. A. Laubacher, G. Phillips, George Warsaw, J. M. Wert and J. Frank McComb; $50,000.

IMPORTANT POINT.

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—Before the board of public service here today Prosecutor Stillwell, of Knox county, raised an important point, in the hear-ing of parole application of John B. Smith, of Brinkhaven, Knox county. Smith received a work house sentence for operating a slot machine in his saloon and fought the case to the supreme court, losing. He is in the work house here and seeks to secure a parole. Stillwell held that as the Columbus work house has the imprisonment of a man under direct contract with the Knox county official board of service is without au-thority to parole him.

WILL HEAR GRIEVANCES.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 12.—A call was issued today for a meeting of the Anthracite Commission in New York on November 14. Carroll D. Wright, the umpire appointed to decide the grievance of the coal miners with respect to the payment of the sliding scale increases, will hear arguments on this question. The mine workers claim that the increases should be based on the gross wages.

DIRECTORS CAN FLOAT ANYTHING THEY PLEASE.

Camden, N. J., Nov. 12.—At a special meeting today of the stock-holders of the west Jersey & Sea Shore railroad the directors were an-thorized to float any subsequent first mortgage bonds at a lower rate of interest than 4%, the rate prescribed in the mortgage. This action is believed to be the first step toward se-uring additional funds by the Penn-sylvania railroad for extensive im-provements on the Sea Shore line. The authorized issue of bonds is $7,000,000, of which about $3,000,000 are out-standing at 4%.

UNOFFICIAL RETURNS.

St. Louis, Nov. 12.—Unofficial re-turns received by the Post Dispatch from all but twelve counties in the state, give Folk, democrat, for governor, a majority of 25,222 over War-bride, republican, and Swager, republi-can for secretary of state, a majority of 14,351 over Cook, the incum-bent. Returns from the counties re-ceived show decided republican gains, adding to the majorities received by Roosevelt over Parker. Of the twelve counties still to be heard from, it will be impossible to get complete returns from eight for at least a week as they are distant from the railroad lines.

TO REVISE TARIFF.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—President will recommend to congress that authority be given the Philippine com-mission to revise the tariff now in force in those islands. This decision was the principal and about the only accomplishment of the cabinet session yesterday. The matter was brought up by Secretary Taft and his recom-mendation in the matter was approved.

W. A. Herren, of Finch, Ark., says, "I wish to report that Foley's Kidney Cure has cured a terrible case of kidney and bladder trouble that two doctors had given up." H. E. Vorkusky and Wm. McVille,

Here is shown the model of a Paris reception and calling gown of deep cream gauze de sole, trimmed with bands of lace insertion and tucks. The deep bertha falls to the waist line, all but hiding the girdle of cream satin, which is tight and broad.

The Yellow Holly

By FERGUS HUME,
Author of "The Mystery of a Hansom Cab," etc.

Copyright, 1905, by G. W. Dillingham Company

(Continued)

"Well," said Bawdsey, pushing the chair back to its place with an effort. "You see when I learned through the advertisement that George Brendon was the grandson of Lord Derrington I didn't think of it. He related your history."

"Including the murder of my father?"

"Yes, including that," replied Bawdsey, with a queer expression, "but that has nothing to do with the matter in hand," Mr. Brendon.

"I'm not so sure," retorted George. "I should not be at all surprised to find that Mrs. Jersey was 'murdered to keep her quiet' on that point."

"How do you make that out?"

"Well, she was in San Remo at the time my father was murdered. She let him, and I dare say, in spite of having been discharged, watched him. She right know who the lady in blue. But I forgot, you are ignorant of all these things."

"Not at all. Don't I tell you that Lord Derrington told me the whole story? I see what you mean. You think that Mrs. Jersey might know who killed your father, and for the sake of shunting her up the assassin committed the second murder."

"That is my idea," said George coolly.

"It's ingenious, but it won't hold water. However, we can talk of that on another occasion. In the meantime I wish to tell you how I discovered the secret door."

"There's no need to. Derrington told you that I knew this house, as my grandfather had brought me up in it. When you knew through Mrs. Ward that I had passed a night here and learned through her, by means of Train, that the yellow holly berry had been found in the woman's sitting room, you set to work to find out how I escaped from this room. You knew that Train had locked the door."

"Yes," answered Bawdsey, "he told Mrs. Ward that."

"He seems to have told her everything. However, to make a long story short, you hunted for an exit and you found it."

"That's so," replied Bawdsey quietly. "And now we had better return to the sitting room and talk over the matter quietly."

"One moment," said George. "have you told Lord Derrington or Mrs. Ward of this discovery?"

"No, and I won't tell them, either. I wish to get you out of trouble, Mr. Brendon. They haven't the least idea that you could leave the room, and the impression with them is that Train is screening you. If I am to help you I must know all."

"Then you shall know—whatever I can tell you." George hesitated, and Bawdsey guessed that he was not going to be so frank as was necessary. However, he made no remark, and Brendon continued: "I came to this house to see Mrs. Jersey and get the truth out of her. It was my intention to speak to her the next morning. However, in the drawing room she stated that she wished the company to disperse at 10 o'clock, as she had business to attend to. Also, she came up to this room to see if I and my friend were in bed at 11. I guessed that she intended to see some one, and, wondering if the expected person had made anything to do with my business, I determined to get her on that night. When Train was asleep I locked my bedroom door and made use of the cupboard. As a boy I discovered the cupboard, and I am ashamed to say that I sometimes made use of it in my teens to go to the theater unknown to my grandfather. On that night I used it again and went to the sitting room of Mrs. Jersey. It was about 12 o'clock. The door of the room was closed. I opened it and saw her sitting at the table, dead, as she was discovered in the morning. Mrs. Jersey knew, and Mrs. Jersey had made use of her knowledge, but she never told Derrington anything. Had she done so, her hold over him might have been feeble, although, owing to her knowledge, and to the old man's determination not to acknowledge George, it could not be done away with altogether."

"One afternoon when a card was brought to Derrington he nearly jumped from his seat when he read the name of George Brendon. At first he was inclined to tear up the card and send the pieces out to the innocent young man who thus dared to trespass on his privacy. But on second thoughts he decided to accredit him an interview. He knew that by this time Mr. Bawdsey must have informed George that his grandfather knew him as Brendon, and the old autocrat wished to see if George would behave as pluckily at their second interview as he had done at the first. Moreover, he could not forget the good looks and clever conversation of the young man. It would be absurd to say that Derrington's heart yearned over this unacknowledged twin of the family tree, for according to common report he had no heart. But he certainly felt an unvoiced emotion when Brendon, tall and handsome, composed and ready for battle, stepped into the room. Derrington knew that the young man was ready for battle, for he saw the light of war in his eyes."

"Oh, he has told very little," rejoined Bawdsey. "After all, nothing can be done if I hold my tongue."

"Nothing will be done in any case," said George grimly. "But I thank you for warning me, Mr. Bawdsey. What are your plans?"

"I have none at present. Lord Derrington asked me to watch you."

"I think you certainly have done, and if you choose you can go on watching me. But why do you stop in this house?"

"Oh, I knew Mrs. Jersey some years ago and returned here for old times' sake."

George shrugged his shoulders. He felt convinced that Bawdsey was not speaking openly. But then Brendon, on his part, had had something back. Neither man was sufficiently sure of George to be sure of what he was doing.

"Well, how do we stand?" asked Bawdsey.

"Much as we did before," replied George. "Save that I know you will hold your tongue and not get me into trouble."

"I shall certainly do that. But remember Mrs. Ward."

"Lord Derrington can stop her mouth."

"Ah, but will he?" asked Bawdsey dubiously.

"I shall call on Lord Derrington and see," answered Brendon, and, with a nod, left the room.

CHAPTER XIII.

OPRIGINALLY Lord Derrington had started life with a sufficiently impudent will, and, thanks to his position as a titled and wealthy orphan, he had been enabled to exercise it at a very early age. The bulk of seeing every one terrified at his mere glance grew upon him, and he became unbearable not only to live with, but even to meet. His wife, after presenting him with two sons, had died gladly, seeing no other way of escaping her tyrant and the report went that he had brought her out of existence. Derrington, who would have married again for the sake of his boys, but he could find no one willing to endure his yoke. Consequently he became something of a woman hater and entered the political world. In this he met with a certain amount of opposition, which did him good and might have trained him into a moderately decent member of society; but that his reformation was cut short by his being appointed ambassador to a prominent European power. Here his temper had full swing, and he bullied everybody for three years. At the end of that time he nearly caused a war and was recalled. There was some talk of his being appointed vice-roy for India, but those in power had sufficient pity on the country not to send him.

Failing, from his reputation, to get another appointment, Derrington took to quarreling with his sons, Percy, the elder, had a spic of the paternal temper and refused to submit. Consequently he was forbidden the house and crowned his iniquities in the old man's eyes by marrying Rosina Lockwood.

"Indeed! What proof have you of this?"

"The evidence of my nurse, Jane Fraser, who attended to me when my father, your eldest son, was alive. The testimony of my former guardian, Mr. Ireland, who took charge of me after the death of my mother's father. Finally, my certificate of birth, which I will show you whenever you choose."

Derrington was confounded by this thin answer. He would have blustered, but George's politeness gave him no chance of losing his temper, and without fuel it would not blaze up.

"You seem to be well provided with proofs," said he grimly. "Let us admit for the sake of argument that you are my grandson. But the marriage?"

"Ah, that is the difficult point! Any it is unpleasant for me to talk of the subject in Justice to the memory of my mother I hold that there was an marriage."

"And in Justice to my family I hold that there was none."

"In that case, Lord Derrington, we join issue."

"You are quite a lawyer, sir," sneered the old man.

"I thought of studying for the bar at one time."

"Indeed, and why did you not?"

"I had no money to pay my fees," said George coldly.

The old lord winced. "You could have had money had you chosen," said he roughly.

"I know. For that reason I changed my name to Brendon."

"Well," said Derrington irritably, "let us come to the point. You say you are my grandson. I admit that, I am aware of what evidence you can bring forward. But I decline to admit that you are my heir. The onus of proof lies with you."

"I am prepared to discover the proof if your lordship will behave in an honorable manner."

"What?" roared Derrington, rising with a fierce look. "To you mean to say, you jackanapes that I am behaving dishonorably?"

"Extremely so," said Brendon coldly.

"You have had me watched by a detective, you threaten through him to have me arrested for a crime of which I am innocent if I do not give up my attempts to gain my birthright and—"

"No," cried Brendon, rising, "not a word against my mother!"

"Only this, that she was not well born—the daughter of a music master not the wife for my son."

"She was his wife, however. Leave my mother's name out of it and go on, sir. You say that Mrs. Jersey could have proved the marriage."

"Yes," growled Derrington, rather cowed by Brendon's manner. "I did not wish her to do so, for the reasons I have stated."

"Very unworthy reasons," said George.

Derrington looked as though he could have struck George.

"Never mind that," said he, controlling his temper. "I bought that house from your mother's father—the music master," he sneered, "and gave it to Mrs. Jersey free. I also allowed her an annuity. She held her tongue for many years. Then she saw that confounded advertisement in the papers and threatened to tell you the truth on the chance of getting more money out of you when I was dead. I refused, and she then told me that she had written out a confession!"

"I thought as much," interrupted George. "But that has been stolen."

"By whom?"

"By the assassin."

"And who is the assassin?"

"I can't say. But if it is made of that confession either you or I will learn who killed Mrs. Jersey."

"Why you or I?"

"Because we alone can make use of the confession and pay money for it. The thing would be of no use to any one else. But I now understand Mrs. Jersey's possession of the house. We're you in it on that night?"

Derrington looked at Brendon and hesitated. Then in strange contradiction to his usual manner he turned away his face. "I decline to answer that question," he growled.

"But I saw you," persisted George.

"You saw. There is nothing more to say," said he.

"Then why did you come here?"

"To ask you if you consider it honorable to threaten me. I have already done so. There is no more to be said on my part. I wish you to recognize my mother's marriage and to state that I am your heir."

"Anything else?" sneered Derrington.

"Yes, you will publicly recognize me," he sneered, "and give me an income sufficient to maintain the dignity of my relation of George Vane, and you will offer Mrs. Ward to keep silent."

"Mrs. Ward? What have I to do with her?"

"A great deal, apparently. You told her my story, and as she does not want me to marry her daughter she will have heaven and earth to join me by using her knowledge."

"How can she ruin you?"

"I think you understand, sir. The story told by my friend Train."

"Friend? Jokes, rather."

"No. He is only a weak man who is always in the hands of a clever and treacherous George. He knew perfectly well that it was difficult to love him, and did not choose to think it."

"I see you are not surprised to see me. I'll be back on," said Brendon with his eyes fixed on the old man's glass.

"Not I. It's not surprised at you were at seeing Bawdsey," said Derrington.

George said, "I was not at all surprised to see the man." He said calmly. "It was my duty to let him know that he had been to see him, but it was my intention to do so in a cool way."

"What reason?" asked Derrington.

"Safety, sir. Derrington growled.

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that I can speak freely to you as I know perfectly well that you are not in a position to make me a fool."

"Were you in the room where the woman was murdered? Speak plainly."

"I came here purposely to speak to you as you are not surprised to see me. I'll be back on," said Brendon with his eyes fixed on the old man's glass.

"Not I. It's not surprised at you were at seeing Bawdsey," said Derrington.

George said, "I was not at all surprised to see the man." He said calmly. "It was my duty to let him know that he had been to see him, but it was my intention to do so in a cool way."

"What reason?" asked Derrington.

"Safety, sir. Derrington growled.

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that I can speak freely to you as I know perfectly well that you are not in a position to make me a fool."

"Were you in the room where the woman was murdered? Speak plainly."

"I came here purposely to speak to you as you are not surprised to see me. I'll be back on," said Brendon with his eyes fixed on the old man's glass.

"Not I. It's not surprised at you were at seeing Bawdsey," said Derrington.

George said, "I was not at all surprised to see the man." He said calmly. "It was my duty to let him know that he had been to see him, but it was my intention to do so in a cool way."

"What reason?" asked Derrington.

"Safety, sir. Derrington growled.

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that I can speak freely to you as I know perfectly well that you are not in a position to make me a fool."

"Were you in the room where the woman was murdered? Speak plainly."

"I came here purposely to speak to you as you are not surprised to see me. I'll be back on," said Brendon with his eyes fixed on the old man's glass.

"Not I. It's not surprised at you were at seeing Bawdsey," said Derrington.

George said, "I was not at all surprised to see the man." He said calmly. "It was my duty to let him know that he had been to see him, but it was my intention to do so in a cool way."

"What reason?" asked Derrington.

"Safety, sir. Derrington growled.

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that I can speak freely to you as I know perfectly well that you are not in a position to make me a fool."

"Were you in the room where the woman was murdered? Speak plainly."

"I came here purposely to speak to you as you are not surprised to see me. I'll be back on," said Brendon with his eyes fixed on the old man's glass.

"Not I. It's not surprised at you were at seeing Bawdsey," said Derrington.

George said, "I was not at all surprised to see the man." He said calmly. "It was my duty to let him know that he had been to see him, but it was my intention to do so in a cool way."

"What reason?" asked Derrington.

50 Elegant Furnished Rooms,
Single or P. & Suite.
Everything Now and Up-to-Date.
Steam Heated.

Cinderella of St. Augustine

By E. W. Sargent

Copyright, 1904, by E. W. Sargent

Jimmie Tolliver regarded with decided interest the tiny shoe which lay in the center of the white counterpane. He had a quick eye for the attractive, and he assured himself that this was a triumph of the cobbler's art, if, indeed, the maker of such a dainty creation deserved such a commonplace appellation.

It was a low cut shoe, with patent leather sides and white kid facings, quite an unusual combination. Somehow it seemed to appeal to Jimmie, and he removed it from the bed to the table, where it stood before his eyes while he wrote the inevitable letter home.

Then, while he lazily puffed a cigarette, he invested the dainty bit of footgear with all the attributes of a romance. How did it get there? Surely no chambermaid, even in a high-priced hotel, had ever boasted the possession of such a creation. He turned it over carefully, but there was not so much as a monogram to sight.

He retired to dreams which were filled with visions of tiny shoes that suddenly resolved themselves into the most beautiful girls and as unexpectedly showed as mere shoes.

Indeed, but for the presence of the shoe on his table the next morning he might have thought that the whole affair was a dream, for how is a decidedly feminine shoe to find its way into the room of so confirmed a woman hater as Jimmie Tolliver?

He placed the shoe on the bureau as being safer than the table, and then he went down to breakfast. He ran upstairs afterward to change his coat for a trip over the golf links and reached his room just in time to catch a strange chambermaid making off with the shoe.

"See here, young woman, that's pretty larceny," warned Tolliver. "You put that right back."

"I was only taking it for the lady it belonged to," demurred the dusky servant.

"Uh, uh!" said Tolliver. "Who is the lady it belongs to?"

The woman could only look around helplessly. "Deed, sir," she declared.

Now, Tolliver particularly disliked Miss Carroll, not because he knew her, but because his mother wanted him to marry her and settle down. He had originally been planned that Jimmie should run over to Nassau to meet them and escort them home, and it was because of Miss Carroll that he had not done so.

He took the train for Palm Beach, mentally protesting, but even his devotion to the unknown wearer of the slipper was forgotten at sight of his mother's guest.

She was slightly below average height, but with figure and carriage that did not betray the fact until she stood beside other girls. She had the grace of queen, and grave blue eyes saved her from acquiring a reputation as a flirt.

Tolliver, from the moment he took her little hand in his, was sorry that he had not gone on to Nassau, and that night when he took the slipper out of the tray of his trunk it somehow seemed to have lost its old personality. It only suggested Vivienne.

In a short time he forgot the slipper entirely. He had awakened to a realization of the fact that he was really in love with Vivienne Carroll and that once he and his mother were in accord on the matrimonial subject.

They were sitting on the broad plaza the next night, Vivienne opening and closing her fan nervously.

"Mr. Tolliver," she began, with an odd diffidence in her voice, "I want to ask you something."

"Even to the half of my kingdom," he quoted, with mock heroics.

"Not the half of a kingdom," she corrected, with a laugh; "the half of a pair of shoes."

"Eh? What?" stammered Tolliver, taken back.

"You have one of my shoes," she went on, "unless you've thrown it away."

"I assure you," he said, "the only lady's shoe I have is one that I found on my bed in St. Augustine. A dark girl tried to make me believe that it had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

Vivienne laughed.

"I'm not as strong as that," she declared. "You see, you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Heisen Redgold, and, as I was leaving the next morning, I had been thrown into the window across a two hundred yard court."

THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT.

PUBLISHED BY
THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT
PUBLISHING COMPANY,
120 West High Street.THE ONLY NEWSPAPER IN LIMA RECEIVING ASSOCIATED PRESS
REPORTS BY WIRE.

Telephones 84.

Entered at the Postoffice at Lima, O.,
as Second Class Matter.

Member of Associated Press.

THE DAILY TIMES-DEMOCRAT is issued every evening, except Sunday, and will be delivered by carriers at any address in the city at the rate of 10 cents per week. THE SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES-DEMOCRAT issued Tuesday and Friday, will be mailed to any address at the rate of $1 per year, payable in advance. The Semi-Weekly is a seven column, eight page paper, the largest and best newspaper in Allen county.

Persons desiring the Times-Democrat delivered to their homes may secure the same by postal card address, or by order through telephone No. 84.

Terms of Subscription.
Daily edition, one year..... $5.00
Daily edition, six months..... $2.50
Daily edition, three months..... $1.25
Daily edition, one week..... 10
Daily Semi-Weekly edition, one year..... $1.00

Official paper of the City of Lima and County of Allen.

Any subscriber ordering the address of the paper changed must always give the former as well as present address.

When delivery is irregular please make immediate complaint at the office.

All business, news, letters or telegraph dispatches must be addressed to THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT, Lima, Ohio.

ANECDOTES OF ROOSEVELT.

The president takes more physical exercise than any other man in Washington.

His favorite enjoyment is to go horseback-riding and to get somebody to go with him.

If the friend can't ride very well, the president is fond of dropping back a bit, and then riding up at a hard gallop and shouting a "cow-boy" "Whoopie!" at the top of his voice.

He does this to Senator Lodge very often, and Lodge hangs grimly to the pommel of the saddle while the president laughs.

He is fond of literary people. He is a great reader and has a retentive memory. Usually when some writer he knows slightly is coming to the White House, he posts himself on that writer's books, and then delights and parodies the author by his familiarity with characters and plots.

The president is very sensitive to newspaper criticism. He lectures reporters severely when they print anything he does not like. He thinks nothing should be printed in administration papers that is in any way incompatible with his dignity, whether the story is true or not.

He has had two reporters removed from their assignments within the last two years for printing things he did not like. He wrote personal letters to the editors about these reporters, too, and both of them had printed true stories. Similarly, the president is fond of praise. He likes to read nice sentiments about himself in the newspapers. He is not so great a newspaper reader as President McKinley was, but he patronizes the press-clipping bureaus and pores over the clippings every day.

President Roosevelt is generous with his confidence. He will tell his friends anything, and then bind them not to reveal what he has said.

This makes it inconvenient sometimes for newspaper men who go to see him, for the president tells the same thing to everybody, and often the story gets out when the man to whom it was told originally must hold it in confidence or break his word.

The president gets angry easily. He says harsh things to those who run afoul of him. When he gets excited he can use triangular words with anybody. When he isn't excited his favorite words of emphasis are "By Godfrey!" and "By Jove!"

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier New Zealand Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that were sold in that market. Out of the entire list they found only one that they declared was entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

REMOVAL SALE OF MILLINERY.
10 OFF ON TRIMMED HATS.
FERRY B. STANIER, 221 SOUTH MIAN STREET.
1-46-0-0

COLUMBUS AND RETURN $1.00.

From Wapakoneta, next Sunday via Columbus, $1.00.

TOPICS

For Divine Services To-morrow

Where the Day of Rest Is Observed.

Hours at Which Religious Services Will Be Held in the City—Interesting Services Are Promised.

Second Street M. E. Church. Corner Second street and Hughes avenue. Sunday school at 2: Oliver Clemens, Supt. Preaching by Frank Everhardt at 7. A cordial welcome to Rev. A. M. Crist, pastor.

St. John's Catholic Church. At early mass, 7:30, Father Rupert's theme will be "Small Deeds." High mass at 10 o'clock, subject, "Man's Image of God." Sunday school at 2:15. Vespers at 7:15, with short talk on "Cemeteries in Ireland," as seen by Rev. Rupert during his visit to the old country.

German Reformed Church. On west Wayne street. The public is cordially invited to our English evening services, every Sabbath at 7:15 p. m. Sunday school promptly at 9 a. m.; regular services and services by the pastor, at 10 o'clock; catechetical class every Saturday morning from 9 to 10:30 a. m. The bazaar of the Ladies Aid Society will be held at Palmer and Owen's on Market street, November 19th, all day. Paul H. Land, pastor.

First Congregational Church.

South Elizabeth street, near Market. Rev. J. J. Swanson, pastor. Worship and sermon by the pastor at 10.

At 11:15 Bible school: W. S. Shepard, Supt. Junior Endeavor at 2:30; topic: "A Wilful King and an All Powerful God." Senior Endeavor at 6. Rally day program. Solo by Miss Leah Arthur. At 7 Junior Endeavor rally; fine program, music and brief addresses. Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:15, followed by choir rehearsal. All seats free. This church cordially welcomes all worshippers.

Market Street Presbyterian Church.

Corner west Market and West streets. Preaching by the pastor, Robert J. Thompson, D. D. Subject at 10:30: "The Place of God's Honor."

At 7:30, "The Young Man in the City," a plea for the religious welfare of young men. Sunday school at 9:15. Young Peoples' meeting at 6:30. Abbie Price, leader. Prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30, subject, "The Church and young men" —ways a we're at this church for all.

Solarville Mission Church.

On Third street. Sunday school at 2.

Bible reading at 3. Preaching service at 7. Rev. A. M. Dean, of Kentucky, will preach. All are invited.

A. D. Wely, pastor.

German Lutheran Church.

Corner Kirby and Jackson streets.

Sunday school at 9. Divine services at 10 and 7. The evening service will be conducted in the English language. Strangers are welcome. R. Brenner, pastor.

Wayne Street Church of Christ.

J. N. Scholz, minister. Res. 339 North Charles street. New phone R. 1155. Bible school at 9:15. Communion at 10:30. Preaching at 11:00. Subject of morning discourse, "Our High Priest." Christian Endeavor prayer service at 5:15. Preaching at 7:00. Subject of the evening sermon "The Latest Religion."

First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Second floor, Masonic building. Sunday service 10:30. Subject "Soul and Body." Wednesday evening meeting at 7:30. Reading room open every day from 2 to 5. Visitors welcome.

Calvary Reformed Church.

Corner east High street and Park avenue. Rev. E. E. Young, pastor.

The general public is invited to attend the following services at Calvary. Sunday school at 9:15. Preaching service at 10:30 and 7. Juniors at 2:30 and Christian Endeavor at 6:15. All are welcome to all. S. S. Newhouse pastor.

Epworth M. E. Church.

B. F. Reading, pastor. Nov. 13th services.

9:15 Sunday school, 10:30.

Preaching subject, "The Soul on the Wing." 2, Junior League, 7. Epworth League, 7. Preaching subject, "Temptation and Full Growth." A cordial welcome to the public.

Carl Ackermann, pastor.

The First Christian Church.

Services in the assembly room of the court house. Worship with sermon at 10 and 7. The theme for both hours will be, "Confession of Christ—What Does It Imply?" Sunday school at 11. A welcome to all. S. S. Newhouse pastor.

Main Street Presbyterian Church.

730 south Main street. Wm. M. Curry, pastor.

The pulpit will be occupied at both the morning service at 10:30 and the evening service at 7, by Mrs. Edith Livingston Peake.

These services mark the beginning of a series of meetings during which time Mrs. Peake will speak nightly.

She is a Bible reader of rare ability.

Having been trained for the stage and on the stage, she knows how to tell the great realities of life as forcibly as she formerly told the fictions.

The public is most cordially invited to hear this talented woman. She has held meetings in some of the largest and best churches of the country, both east and west. The Boys and Girls Club will meet at 6:15. Mr. Riven will give an address to them on "Some Boys I Have Known."

The Pastors' Union will meet at the Y. M. C. A. Monday, Nov. 11, at 2 p. m.

Rev. C. M. Rupp will read a paper on "Evolution and Immortality."

Business of great importance to all the churches will come before the union.

All the ministers of Lima and vicinity are invited to be present.

First Baptist Church.

Central avenue, between Market and High streets. Rev. Jno. Lord

Pettigrew, of Assam, will speak. Young Peoples' meeting at 6. Evening preaching service at 7 o'clock. Topic, "The Dream of Pilate's Wife." Mr. Lord will preach. Every one is cordially invited.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church.

Angus H. Ranton, the evangelist, will be with us on Sunday, and through the week and will preach every night. Mr. Avann will preach in the morning on "God's Most Formidable Rival." He will be assisted by the evangelist. Mr. Ranton's subject in the evening will be "Bargain Makers." The first half hour in the evening will be a song service. All interested in the revival should come to the class meeting at 9 o'clock. Public worship at 10. Sunday school and pastor's Bible class at 11:30. Boys and girls meeting at 3. Young peoples' meeting at 6. Evening service at 7. Joseph Mercer Avann, pastor.

South Side Church of Christ.

Corner of Central and Kirby. Pastor Sims' Lord's Day themes are as follows: At 10:30, "The Cross of Christ." At 7:30, "A Model Preacher and Model Conversion." Bible school at 9:15. Juniors at 2:30. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6. Pastor's residence, 512 south Central avenue. Old phone 845 R.

Church of Christ Mission.

Highland Park. Bible school at 2:30. Preaching at 3:30 and 7:30. Prayer meeting at 7:30. Wednesday night. Frank Custer, pastor.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Corner west North and Elizabeth streets. Rev. F. P. Bossart, pastor.

Services at 10:15 and 7. Morning,

"St. Paul's Idea of a Christian," Evening,

"Giving Our Lives for Others."

Sunday school at 9. Luther League devotional meeting with Miss Weston Wednesday at 7:30. Catechism at 10:30. Preaching at 10 o'clock; catechetical class every Saturday morning from 9 to 10:30 a. m. The bazaar of the Ladies Aid Society will be held at Palmer and Owen's on Market street, November 19th, all day. Paul H. Land, pastor.

First Congregational Church,

South Elizabeth street, near Market.

Rev. J. J. Swanson, pastor. Worship and sermon by the pastor at 10.

At 11:15 Bible school: W. S. Shepard,

Supt. Junior Endeavor at 2:30; topic

"A Wilful King and an All Powerful

God." Senior Endeavor at 6. Rally day program. Solo by Miss Leah Arthur.

At 7 Junior Endeavor rally; fine program, music and brief addresses.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:15, followed by choir rehearsal.

All seats free. This church cordially welcomes all worshippers.

Protestant Episcopal Church.

North and West streets, Rev. G. F.

H. Hoyt, rector. Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity: Holy communion at 7:30. Sunday school at 9:30. Morning prayer and sermon at 10:30. Evening prayer and sermon at 7. Every one cordially invited.

Teachers' Training Class.

On account of the concert at Trinity Methodist church tonight, the teachers' training class at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. will begin at 7, sharp.

Jefferson Street Union Mission.

Sabbath school at 2:15. Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7:30. All are welcome.

Gospel Tabernacle.

On Main street, near the bridge.

Special services Sunday afternoon and evening. W. S. Dean of Lexington, Ky., will preach. Sunday school at 2.

Preaching at 3 and 7:15. Friday evening meeting at 7. W. F. Bostick, pastor.

Union Street Lutheran Church.

Sunday school at 9:15. Morning services at 10:15. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Morning theme: "Christian Life and Activity." Evening subject: "The Book of Romance." Come and worship. Strangers welcome.

Carl Ackermann, pastor.

The First Christian Church.

Services in the assembly room of the court house. Worship with sermon at 10 and 7. The theme for both hours will be, "Confession of Christ—What Does It Imply?" Sunday school at 11.

A welcome to all. S. S. Newhouse pastor.

The First Christian Church.

Second floor, Masonic building. Sunday service 10:30. Subject "Soul and Body."

Wednesday evening meeting at 7:30.

Reading room open every day from 2 to 5.

Visitors welcome.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these requirements and for the speedy and permanent cure of bad colds stands without a peer. For sale by all druggists.

Excursion to Philippines.

Sights at World's Fair.

Run Only Few Weeks More.

Until December 1st, Pennsylvania

Lines run daily excursions to St.

Louis, inquire of Pennsylvania lines ticket agents about fares and features of Pennsylvania trains which add pleasure to World's Fair trip. Get posted by calling on or addressing J.

W. Reed, ticket agent.

SOLDIERS' WID

AMUSEMENTS.

THE STAGE.

Tonight—Sam. T. Jack's Burlesque. Thursday—"When Women Love." Friday—"They Shall Not Kill." Saturday—Lew Dockstader.

It is claimed that in the point of intricacy the production of Sam T. Jack's Burlesques who come to the Faurot Opera House on tonight is entitled to much praise. There are two scenes used in the entertainment, a county prison and the interior of a Parisian palace. They are exceptionally well painted by Mr. Maurice and the pictures presented with many richly dressed women on the stage is one of considerable splendor. It will be noticed that in the combination of colors in the various sets, there is an absence of those faults that usually mar similar productions. The story of the burlesque is not over important. It concerns the doings of a "Cuban Adventures" who "falls" into a lot of money and into the arms of an impudent mountebank, who, at once, proceeds to relieve her of the responsibility of taking care of the cash for the more enormous duties of "Standing off creditors." She gets away with the cash. "A Rialto Rounder" is the name of the piece, and from all reports it is one of the best and cleverest musical comedies seen here.

In most melodramas there are scenes in which missing papers have an important bearing on the play, but in the new "love" and "labor" play "When Women Love," it is refreshing to note that an entirely new departure is made, in which the Columbia Graphophone is one of the predominating features. It serves to bring the guilty to justice and to free the innocent. All this is brought about by the evidence of the graphophone, which is used as a witness in the trial of a poor, young factory girl. A conversation which has previously been recorded on the instrument, without their knowledge, is reproduced in the natural voices of the "conspirators." "When Women Love" is conceded by managers, press and public to be one of the big melodramatic successes of the season. The play comes to the Faurot Opera House on next Thursday night.

A melodrama with the startling title, "Thou Shall Not Kill," will be seen at the Faurot Opera House on next Friday night. It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mr. C. VanFerr, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but go no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Croup, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by H. F. Vortkamp, Druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. size 50c. $1.00.

NOT THE ONLY ONE.

William H. Crane, before his departure for Europe, told the following:

"In submitting a story to a certain magazine a disappointed literary aspirant requested that in the event of his manuscript being found unavailable he be favored with the reason. In a week the manuscript was returned and on the customary printed slip accompanying it was written:

"Dear Sir:—The superscription to your manuscript seems to us to best express our reasons for refusal. Respectfully yours,

THE EDITOR."

"Opening the manuscript at the title page the puzzled aspirant read his own handwriting:

"His One Great Sin." About 4,800 words."

"Little Colds" neglected—thousands of lives sacrificed every year. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures little colds—cures big colds too, down to the very verge of consumption.

A Fancy. If all the stars were pumpkin pies, I know a little trick. I'd take an alibi to the skies. And get there mighty quick.

—Exchange.

Lew Dockstader and his great min-

SELF-CONTROL.

(Walter S. Whitacre, Mt. Vernon, O.) What's the use of being irritable? What's the use of being upset by the severest trials, or flying to pieces without cause? There is no use in it, and in most cases it is a mere habit. With some people it seems to be natural to be easily provoked, to be sarcastic and cutting in their remarks, and to be ready on all occasions to make a thrust that will wound the feelings of some one. They do it because they are irritable. It is not natural, but simply a bad habit, acquired after being induced in time after time. No it is not natural to be irritable. Nature has no such hideous blemishes upon her fair, sweet face.

A mother says, "Don't mind Lily, it's natural for her to speak short. It's her way, and you must excuse her." A daughter says, "Don't mind papa, he's gruff with everybody. That's his way, and you must not pay any attention to it. He means all right."

What fits my excuse for unpardonable sins! At least unpardonable breaches of the etiquette of good breeding. If that is Lily's way she ought to be ashamed of it and learn a better way. If the father means well he ought to act and speak pleasantly and politely. An agreeable habit should be just as easily formed and adhered to as a disagreeable one.

Moreover, irritability is a sign of weakness, and indicates a loss of self-control. Without self-control there is no strength of character, no real manhood or womanhood. Don't be ruled by capricious whims that come and go like flashes. When you have learned to practice the art of self-control, you are applying the most essential rule of your life.

Irritability is the forerunner of many grosser evils. If unchoked it inevitably leads to misery, and in many cases it is the introduction to a life of cruelty and crime.

If an irritable disposition is not a natural disposition, then there must be some predisposing cause or causes to produce it. Sometimes the cause is apparent, but more frequently it is not. Very often irritability is the symptom arising from an inharmonious physical condition. It is a common thing for physical causes to give rise to mental symptoms. Our bodily ailments have a tendency to make us gloomy, pessimistic, irritable. Indigestion lies at the bottom of many a wrong, and leads many a soul into erratic ways. Then it might be said that there is some reason for being irritable. There may be a cause, but it is an unreasonable one. There is no reason why any one should express irritability in his words or actions, although there may be a cause underlying the tendency in his disposition away from the beauty and sweetness of geniality and self-control.

If irritability in your case is a habit, away with it. If there is an aggravating cause, remove it. In the meantime, control your nerves, your temper, your mind. In short, control the self. Do this and your reward will be great, both here and hereafter. —Medical Talk.

A YOUNG AMERICAN.

Baron Moncheur, the Belgian Minister, visited Baltimore not long ago. At a dinner in Baltimore he said, "The spirit of business enterprise and speculation is what impresses me most profoundly in America. For instance I was riding one day on the outskirts of Washington, and at a certain place I dismounted and got a little boy to hold my horse. I was gone about ten minutes, and on my return I found the first boy gone and another—a smaller one—standing at the horse's head."

"How is this?" I said. "You are not the boy I left my horse with."

"No, sir," said the tiny urchin; "I speculated and bought the job of the other fellow for a dime."

"Of course, after that," the Minister added, "it was impossible for me to bear the market."

Emperor William has set the fashion in Germany for heavy pale blue satin.

Truth and Poetry.

Hi diddie dandy,

A kid got some candy,

And soon he was baldly stuck up;

He looked for his sister,

But somehow he missed her,

And so he got washed by the pup.

VAST

Sums To Be Spent

For

Coast Defense

New Construction in the Scheme

For Peace Represents Expenditure of Twenty-eight Million Dollars.

Among the Estimates, Harbors Along the Ohio Shore of Lake Erie Are Remembered, Cleveland Getting the Bulk.

Washington, Nov. 12.—General Mackenzie, chief of engineers of the United States army in his annual report to the secretary of war, presents an exhaustive review of the work accomplished by his corps during the fiscal year ending June 30 last, and submits estimates of appropriations required for the fiscal year beginning July 1 next.

The report says that the sea coast defenses of the United States are somewhat more than 50 per cent completed, and that existing projects comprise 364 heavy guns, 1,296 rapid fire guns and 524 mortars, while up to the present time provisions have been made for mounting 584 heavy guns and 376 mortars. The most important of the sites to be required is the one at the southern entrance to New York harbor, rendered necessary, it is stated, by the new deep water entrance under construction.

Improved methods of construction have necessitated modifications of the earlier constructed fortifications in order to modernize them. The new construction in the scheme of coast defense at the present time represents an expenditure of $28,000,000 for engineer work alone. Among the estimates of appropriations required for river and harbor improvement, submitted by the chief of the engineers are the following:

Toledo harbor, Ohio, $15,000; Sandusky harbor, O., $143,000; Black River harbor, Ohio, $116,000; Cleveland harbor, $700,000; Fairport harbor, O., $228,000; and Conneaut harbor, O., $60,000.

While there is life there is hope. I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J.

Cream Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 50 Warren St., New York.

YOU WILL NOT REGRET

Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs and colds, reliable, tried and tested, safe and sure. A general household favorite wherever used. H. F. Vortkamp and M. Melville.

HERO-WORSHIP.

An old story of Emerson was told the other day by a Cambridge man.

"A New York woman," he said, "called on Emerson one morning. The philosopher was reading in his study, and near him, on a plate, there lay a little heap of cherry-stones. The visitor slipped one of these stones into her glove.

"Some months later she met Emerson at a reception in Boston. She recalled her visit to him, and then she pointed to the brooch she wore—a brooch of gold and brilliants, with the cherry-stone set in the center.

"I took this stone from the plate at your elbow on the morning of my call," she said.

"Ah," said Emerson, "I'll tell my amanuensis of that. He will be pleased. The young man loves cherries, but I never touch them myself."

SHAWNEE ITEMS.

R. R. Zumehly and Elmer McClain, of the O. N. U. at Ada, came home Tuesday to vote. It was the latter's first ballot and he feels gratified over the results.

Miss Mabel Breeze is spending the week at the St. Louis exposition.

Miss Alpha Frauenthe, who is an instructor at Lima College, spent Wednesday afternoon and night with Alta Strawbridge.

Harry Bowsher is working in Lima, having secured a position as conductor on the city lines.

"Resolved: That the Part Women Are Taking in Education, Politics and Commerce is to the Best Interest of the Country," was the question for discussion before the Shawnee Debating Society Friday evening, November 11th. Affirmed by E. O. Zumehly, C. E. Strawbridge and Oscar M. L. Mayer. Denied by C. C. Hefner, Ardin Zumehly and C. W. Burkhardt.

C. B. Lehman spent Tuesday at West Cairo looking after business interests.

Mrs. Paul Mayer has been on the sick list a part of this week.

As is usual and as was expected, the democrats made a sweeping victory here Tuesday, and there is one township at least, the party leaders of democracy are still proud of. S. R. Miller and wife were given an old-fashioned belling Wednesday evening, a large crowd and plenty of noise predominating.

HAS THEM GUESSING.

A 200-acre corn field located on the Stephen Laskey farm, four miles west of Portage, Ohio, and in the least settled part of Wood county, contains a mystery that has already wrought the residents of that vicinity into a fever of excitement, driving 15 hardy corn huskers from their labors and interested the county at large as nothing has ever done before, says a Bowing Green dispatch, dated election day. It says:

"Yesterday the 15 huskers with five wagons reached a point near the center of the big field. They heard a peculiar wailing cry, such a cry as is made by a very small child in distress. It was at first attributed to the wagons, but a close inspection revealed the fact that the wagons were guiltless. One of the laborers was suspected of having employed ventriloquism to deceive his fellows. He was sent from the field, but the noise continued and the men, believing a child was lost in the immense field, began a search but sought in vain. Still the cry was ever in their ears sometimes louder, sometimes lessened as by distance but always audible.

The corn huskers quit work and notified the neighborhood. Men came and listened, then searched and in the end were forced to acknowledge that the affair was beyond their comprehension. The matter became noised about through the county, and today large crowds visited the field and heard the strange noise.

"It is heard most distinctly at the point where first observed. It will appear to be directly beneath one's feet and then is heard a short distance away. Many believe that a child is lost somewhere, but where they cannot imagine. The cries are said to be growing fainter, a fact which leads strength to the belief held by many, that it is of human origin.

"Stumps are numerous in the field, and many that have cavities at the roots have been thoroughly explored, but no clue has resulted. Large posse of farmers have searched every foot of the field, but have found nothing. No child is missing in the neighborhood so far as is known."

Bee's Honey and Tar is different from all other remedies offered for the relief of coughs, lung and bronchial troubles. It contains Antiseptic properties that destroy the germs, and Solvent properties that cut the phlegm, allowing it to be thrown off, moves the bowels gently. Cures Croup, Whooping Cough and Colds in one night. Sold by H. F. Vortkamp's drug store.

A Lump, at Least.

"Say," sneered the neighbor who was always butting in, "what's the use o' your planting anything? You can't raise anything."

"No," replied the hot-headed man, as he dug a hole for another bulb. "I'll bet if I plant my fist in your face it will raise something."

Faurot Opera House.

FRIDAY, NOV. 18.

(FOR ONE NIGHT)

With Big Cast Including

Mr. Geo. S. Tremble and Miss Franklyn Gale.

Elaborate Scenic Production, &c.

PRICES—75c, 50c, 35, 25c.

Seat Sale Opens Thursday, 9 a. m.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Secretary Taft played golf up in Canada last summer with a justice of the supreme court, a cigar man and a city magistrate. The lightest in weight of the quartette owned to 200 pounds. They were dubbed "the 1000-pound foursome."

Professor Charles H. Richardson, of Dartmouth college, believes that the petrified body of a woman recently found in Washington, Vt., is that of a representative of a race which inhabited America before the Indians.

Mrs. W. S. Peabody, wife of the governor of Colorado, has been elected to membership in the Archaeological Institute of America. She was connected for some time with the Bureau of Ethnology at Washington.

Admiral Robert Wren, who has been entrusted with command of the remnant of the Russian fleet at Port Arthur, has been before the public during the present war as commander of the cruiser Bayan, the one Russian vessel that has steadily distinguished herself.

Though idolized by his men, brother officers do not approve of his plan of collecting all sorts of souvenirs and making smart specimens of them.

Paul de Cassagnac, the prominent Bonapartist deputy and journalist, and once the most notorious duelist in France, died November 4. He was 61 years old and began his journalistic career at the age of 19.

HEAR REV. ANDERSON AT OPERA HOUSE TUESDAY NIGHT, NOV. 15TH. THIS WILL UNDOUBTLY BE THE LECTURE TREAT OF THE YEAR. DON'T MISS IT.

5-5

STRETCHING.

A splendid thing for the body is stretching. When you first wake up in the morning take a good long stretch. Stretch the hands as far out sideways as possible. Then stretch them over the head as far as you can reach and at the same time stretch the feet downward as far as you can. Raise the feet and stretch upward just as high as you can and then lower the feet and legs very slowly.

When you get out of bed raise your arms over your head and standing on tiptoe see how near you can reach the ceiling. Then walk about the room while in this position, stand on the right foot and stretch the right arm forward and upward as high as you can, while at the same time the left foot is raised from the floor and stretched outward, and the left hand is stretched backward and downward.

This is a fine exercise for the whole body and is especially good for the waist and hips, making them firm and strong. Standing on the left foot this exercise can be reversed.

If you have been sitting in the same position for a long time reading, studying, writing or sewing, and the muscles have become tired and cramped, the best thing to do is to get up and stretch. Stretch the arms upward and outward and forward and backward. Lift the shoulders as high as you can and drop them. Expand the chest and breathe deeply. Or, sitting in the chair stretch the hands upward, lift the feet from the floor and stretch them forward as far as possible. Anyway so you give the muscles a good vigorous stretch.

When one is very tired there is nothing more restful than stretching the muscles and then relaxing. Stretch the arms, the legs, the whole muscles a good stretch. If they would follow up these stretching exercises every day, gradually leaving off the corset, they would soon have waist muscles strong and firm enough to hold them up without the use of corset, and after they once experience the joy of a free, strong body they will not want to wear tight corsets again.

When you wake up in the morning try these stretching exercises. The next time you are very tired see what stretching will do for you. If you do not find that stretching will invigorate and rest you, put strength and energy into your body. We would like to know about it. E. P. in Medieal Talk.

FINE PROGRAM FOR THE COMING WEEK.

An excellent program has been prepared especially for the association's benefit. This is a very popular feature on Saturday nights, and is appreciated by a large number of men. The orchestra while it is yet new, renders very excellent music. The concert by Oscar Frey's orchestra on Sunday afternoon at 2:45 will be a very attractive feature. The following program has been arranged: March, Vashon Fillmore Sextet from Lucia Overture Testimonial Parlor Waltzes.

A cordial invitation is extended to the men of Lima over 16 years of age to attend. Those under will have to be refused admission. The association male quartette which leads the song service immediately following the concert by the orchestra, for one-half hour provides the men who attend with the best music that we have ever had at the association. The men who compose this quartette are to be congratulated upon being able to get together four men whose voices blend so well.

At 3:30 o'clock Prof. H. J. Christman, who is delivering a series of addresses during this month, will give the second one of the series, the subject being "The Royal Law." Prof. Christman is one of the best speakers who has ever addressed our meetings. Without any doubt he is the best that we have had yet this year. Every man who fails to hear him will miss something that would be beneficial to him, and that which he would enjoy.

The Bible classes meet immediately following the address, in the various rooms of the building. A supper will be served after the Bible classes to all who desire to remain. A very fine menu has been prepared. These suppers are not given for the sake of

FOUD SAFE BLOWN OPEN.

Mansfield Branch of Standard Oil Company Robbed of Cash and Papers.

Mansfield, O., Nov. 12.—When the managers and bookkeepers of the local branch of the Standard Oil company went to the office Saturday morning at seven o'clock they found the place in chaos. The big safe had been blown open with dynamite during the night and the contents carried away. The manager claims that there was only $17 in the safe, but it is believed that a large sum of money and valuable papers are gone. The office is located within a stone's throw of the Baltimore & Ohio passenger depot.

YACHT DESIGNER DEAD.

Glasgow, Nov. 12.—George Lennox Watson, the yacht designer, who has for some time past been ill, died at his residence in this city, this morning. His condition was reported to be better yesterday, but in the night he suffered a relapse and passed away. He was born in 1851.

"Webster and the copy reader at The Globe office agree on the spelling of the word 'delirium,' but I contend that it would be better in every way if I spelt 'delirium.' All my life I have been spelling the word wrong, and now the right way looks wrong to me."—Drake Watson.

BATTLESHIP MAINE.

For $5,000 the United States battleship Maine Salvage Company, of this city, has bought from the Cuban government the wreck of the Maine in Havana harbor. A cofferdam will be built around the hulk, which will be raised.

If any of the 74 bodies of American sailors which were not recovered after the battleship was destroyed on Feb.

THEY

Decide That It Is Lawful

For Railroads

Operated As a Common Carrier

To Make Joint Rates With Other Carriers and Receive Division.

On Other Hand Commission Decides It Unlawful For Any Carrier to Grant Excessive Division Of Such Rates.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The interstate commerce commission, in an opinion by Commissioner Prouty yesterday, made public its decision in the investigation entitled "In the matter of divisions of joint rates and other allowances to terminal railroads." It is decided that rebates which have been received by terminals, in and about the city of Chicago, controlled by the International Harvester Co., and the United States Steel Corporation, popularly known as the Harvester Trust and the Steel Trust, have been excessive for the services rendered by the terminals in switching cars to and from roads leading to all sections of the country. On the general question involved in the case, however, the commission has decided:

That it is not unlawful for a railroad operator as a common carrier and owned by the shipper to make joint rates with other carriers and receive divisions of such rates; but on the other hand, that it is unlawful under the interstate law and the Elkins amendment for any carrier to grant excessive divisions of rates to another carrier owned by the shipper, for the purpose of securing the traffic of that shipper.

To the extent such divisions of rates exceed a reasonable charge for the services performed it is decided that they operate as a rebate to cut the tariff charge for the benefit of the shipper, and constitute undue preference in violation of the statute. The International Harvester Co. owns the capital stock of the Illinois Northern railroad and a controlling interest in the Chicago, West Pullman and Southern Railroad, operating a terminal connecting road between the plant of the Harvester Co. and various other industries and connecting with roads leading to the Missouri river and other sections of the country. Until recently the maximum switching charge received was $3.50 a car, but now the terminal receives a division of rate, with a maximum of 20 per cent on lines reaching the Missouri river, amounting to $12 a car on farm machinery. The commission decided that any division in excess of a reasonable switching charge to be an unlawful preference in favor of the Harvester Co. The case affecting the United States steel corporation refers to a similar division of rates in favor of the Chicago, Lake Shore and Eastern railway, owned by the steel corporation.

It is planned, after Cuban curiosity is satisfied, to put a new bottom on the ship and tow it to Coney Island. There it will be exhibited as a curiosity to all who are willing to pay 25 cents admission, or whatever fee the managers may stipulate.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

It is planned, after Cuban curiosity is satisfied, to put a new bottom on the ship and tow it to Coney Island. There it will be exhibited as a curiosity to all who are willing to pay 25 cents admission, or whatever fee the managers may stipulate.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

It is planned, after Cuban curiosity is satisfied, to put a new bottom on the ship and tow it to Coney Island. There it will be exhibited as a curiosity to all who are willing to pay 25 cents admission, or whatever fee the managers may stipulate.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

The Cuban government was approached many months ago by Mr. Wycoff, a representative of the salvage company. He suggested removing the wreck, which is a serious impediment to navigation in Havana harbor. The Cuban government asked the United States if it still maintained any claim upon the wreck of the Maine. Through the state department the American government replied that whatever interest the United States had held in the wreck of the Maine had lapsed.

ATCHISON GLOBE SIGHTS.

Slide. Kelly slide! You'll need it in dull towns, the newspapers do not know what to do with an item. If you don't want to jeopardize friendship, don't loan money to your friends.

The world needs a genius that will invent an umbrella that will not get lost.

If a woman could become a man he would be hard to suit in picking out a wife.

In politics, as in business, be true to your friends, and don't buy your enemies.

A girl who has a 10-year-old brother is always busy trying to keep him busy.

Moving into a new office is a good deal like marrying, and putting on all new clothes.

People who take an active interest in an election must run the risk of feeling awful bad.

It takes very little to make one competent to figure in giving an amateur musical performance.

"When I go to hell, I expect the entire week to be made up of blue Monday."—Parson Twine.

For an expression of real terror, notice a man when he is questioned about his approaching marriage.

"I'll tell you how smart I am: I made nine election bets, and lost all of them."—Drake Watson.

When we hear of a person who refused to submit to an operation, and got well, we feel like cheering.

The youngest girl in a family is liable to put on princess airs long after her 16-year-old complexion has faded.

You cannot smother genius. An Atchison woman with eight children writes just so much poetry every day.

When a man has a woman clerk whom he is not afraid to jaw at, his women folks at home find one trouble divided.

There is one expression which describes the average man on election day: He acts like a chicken with its head off.

The colors in a tree don't appeal to a man so much as the lumber in it, and all the poetry in the world will not change him.

Elderly men should not judge young men by themselves. Young men and elderly men are entirely different propositions.

An Atchison girl who will shortly marry a minister, was lately seen walking down street smoking a cigarette (in a dream).

The only time a woman looks well on a high stool in a restaurant, is when she is an actress and doing the part on the stage.

Families should be good and large so that every member will hear the real truth about himself from at least a half dozen persons.

Old fashioned hospitality is dying out. Perhaps you are to blame for killing off some of it. Did you ever visit often and too long?

If the hostess begins to treat a guest as if she were one of the family, she has something to go home and grumble about the rest of her days.

It makes no difference what the girl with the braid plays: It is the sweetest music her father ever heard, and to the neighbors it is the worst.

The first question asked in every home by every member of the family returning from an absence on the street is "Where's Mother?"

When a man is prosperous, and thinks much of his clothes, he shows it in one of two ways: He either has the longest overcoat in town, or the shortest.

Talk about a man fussing about the family bills: You should hear a country woman, who makes butter, talk to her folks when they dip into her cream.

It often occurs to a married man that he hasn't had the sympathy of the neighbors since the days when his father carried a strap and led him to the barn.

A question for the Princess: If your mother had always cared as much for style as you do, who would have brought you through teething and whooping cough?

It is hard to get a quorum at the women's whist clubs this fall. The women are crazy over poker. Several women played all yesterday afternoon and the heaviest loser was out eight cents.

At a late husking a young man found a red ear of corn. "You are entitled to kiss a girl for that," he was told. "I don't want to kiss a girl, and I never intend to." O, the story teller!

When you pull a wish bone with a friend, and make a wish, which end wins: the big end or the little end?

In some houses, the small end wins, and in other houses, the big end wins. It's like a cold: some say starve it, and others say stuff it.

No matter how long you have had the cough; if it hasn't already developed into consumption, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will cure it.

Makes children eat, sleep and grow. Makes mother strong and vigorous. Makes a healthy family. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents, tea or tablets. H. F. Verkamp.

Not only as Good, but Better; Not only as Sweet, but Sweeter; Not only as Rich, but Richest; Not only as Fine, but Finer;

80c Young Hyson Tea

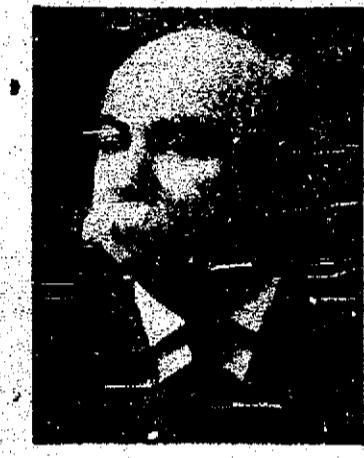

Than ever before offered on the American soil. No strings tied to this statement, no guessing at what we say. We have just received a direct shipment of choicest green Young Hyson Tea coming from China this season. It is too good to sell for 80c. It's the kind of Tea you occasionally read about selling for $1.50 a pound, but getting this Tea as direct from the fields of China, we are in position to let you have this Tea at 80c.

The above is no fairy tale, or advertising matter written for effect. We have been in the Tea business for years. We never saw a Tea to equal this in quality at any price. Ask us for 80 cent Young Hyson.

LIMA TEA CO.

4 SOLICITORS WANTED to sell our goods in this city.

ELECTED

MICHAEL'S MONDAY SPECIAL!

Boys' 50c Dark Flannelette Blouse Waists at

29c.

Sizes 4 to 12.

Our 25c Grades at

15c.

These Prices Monday Only.

PIANOS

....AT...

Special Reduced Prices.

John Church, Everett.